IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ABOUT THIS PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This is a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which provides information to help investors and their advisors assess the merits of investing in the Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund (ARSN 622 207 881) (the Fund). We strongly encourage you to read this PDS in full before making an investment decision. You should also use this PDS to compare the Fund with other investment opportunities before deciding whether to invest in the Fund.

Information relating to Aviva Investors Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable (Aviva Investors SICAV) in which the Fund invests predominantly all of its assets is included in this PDS by way of summary only – full details relating to the Aviva Investors SICAV may be found in its prospectus which is available on www.avivainvestors.com.au or otherwise on request.

This PDS is issued by The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited (ABN 45 003 278 831, AFSL 235150) (Trust Co., we or our), as the Responsible Entity of the Fund. The Fund is a registered managed investment scheme under the Corporations Act.

Neither Trust Co., nor any of our associates, guarantees or underwrites the success of the Fund, the achievement of its investment objective, nor the repayment of capital or particular rates of return on invested capital.

By investing in the Fund, you will be assumed to have agreed to the terms of this PDS and to the terms of the Fund's current Constitution, and as these documents may be amended over time.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

The information in this PDS is general information only and does not take account of your personal financial situation and needs. You should consider this information before making a decision about the Fund and obtain financial advice tailored to your circumstances.

The distribution of this PDS in jurisdictions outside Australia and New Zealand may be restricted by law. This PDS does not constitute an offer in any place in which, or to any person to whom, it would be unlawful to make such an offer. Persons who come into possession of this PDS should inform themselves about and observe any restrictions relating to this PDS. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of securities laws.

New Zealand investors wishing to invest in the Fund should be aware that different tax implications of investing in the Fund may apply and should seek their own tax advice.

All amounts are in Australian dollars unless stated to the contrary.

Information in this PDS is subject to change from time to time. If a change is not materially adverse to investors, we may update the information in this PDS by posting revisions on the Fund Investment Manager's website: www.avivainvestors.com.au.

1 KEY FEATURES AT A GLANCE

Name of the Fund	Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund
ARSN	622 207 881
APIR Code	PIM5807AU
Investment Objectives	The Fund aims to provide a positive total return under all market conditions over the medium to long term. The investment objective of the Fund is to target a gross return in Australian Dollars of 3% per annum above the Reserve Bank of Australia cash rate over a 3-year rolling period, regardless of market conditions. To achieve its investment objectives, the Fund typically will be fully invested in the Australian Dollar currency hedged 'Fh' share class of the Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Sub-Fund of Aviva Investors Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable (the Underlying Fund), or in cash or cash equivalents.
Investment strategy	The Fund will invest only in the Underlying Fund, but may also hold cash or cash equivalents. The Underlying Fund: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – gains exposure to the global bond market by investing directly in bonds or by using derivatives. These investments may include asset-backed securities (ABS) and mortgage-backed securities (MBS) which typically are invested in European and North American markets. The Underlying Fund may also invest up to 10% of its NAV in UCITS and other types of undertakings for collective investments; – may invest in bonds, money market instruments and bank deposits, including sovereign bonds issued by governments, government agencies and municipalities, high yield bonds, convertibles and contingent convertibles. Underlying assets of ABS and MBS may include credit card receivables and various types of loans such as auto loans and commercial or residential mortgages; and – makes extensive use of derivatives for investment purposes, as well as for hedging and for efficient portfolio management. The use of derivatives will have the effect of increasing the overall leverage of the Underlying Fund.
Who may invest	The Fund is available in Australia to persons who qualify as wholesale clients under section 761G of the Corporations Act. Australian retail clients may invest via investment platforms. The Fund is also available in New Zealand to persons who are defined as 'wholesale investors' in the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (New Zealand).

Recommended investment time frame	The minimum suggested investment timeframe is 5 years.
Minimum initial investment	$500,000 (or such other amount as we may determine).
Minimum additional investment	$250,000 (or such other amount as we may determine).
Minimum withdrawal amount	$250,000, or such other amount as we may determine. If your requested withdrawal would result in your balance falling below the minimum balance, we may treat your withdrawal request as a request to withdraw your entire investment.
Minimum balance	$500,000 (or such other amount as we may determine).
Cut off time for applications and withdrawals	2pm AEST on a Business Day.
Valuation frequency	Daily.
Unit Pricing	Daily.
Access to funds	Usually within 5 Business Days of receipt of a withdrawal request. Please note that the Constitution allows Trust Co. to make redemption payments at any time within 21 calendar days from the date of receipt of an accepted withdrawal request, or longer in certain defined events. Please see Section 9 for more information.
Distributions	The Fund currently does not intend to make distributions of income to investors. The Fund will, however, make any minimum distributions of income necessary to comply with its obligations under relevant taxation laws.
Management costs	1.19% of Fund NAV per annum. This amount includes capped components, and estimates of indirect management costs, such as the costs associated with over-the-counter derivatives entered into by the Underlying Fund.
Performance fee	Additional fees and costs may apply. See Section 7.
Entry and exit fees	Nil.
Investor Protection Fee	In certain circumstances when there is strong demand to buy or redeem shares in the Underlying Fund, an additional transaction fee may be charged at the Underlying Fund level to protect existing investors in the Underlying Fund.

2 ASIC BENCHMARK AND DISCLOSURE PRINCIPLES

The benchmark and disclosure principles in ASIC Regulatory Guide 240 are aimed at helping investors to understand and assess the risks of investments such as interests in the Fund, and whether such investments are suitable for them.

2.1 DISCLOSURE BENCHMARKS

Valuation of non-exchange traded assets	The Fund meets this benchmark. The Fund has appointed JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (Sydney Branch) (ABN 43 074 112 011) (JPM) to be its Administrator to provide independent investment valuation, unit pricing and Fund accounting services. Since the Fund will only invest in shares in the Underlying Fund and cash or cash equivalents, its net asset value (NAV) will equal the value of those shares and any cash or cash equivalents on hand, less any scheme expenses including investment management fees. J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. currently acts as the Underlying Fund's depositary and administrator, and performs accounting and NAV calculation services. JPM will rely on the share price determined for the Underlying Fund in determining the Fund's unit price.
Periodic Reporting	The Fund meets this benchmark. The following information about both the Fund and the Underlying Fund's respective affairs will be provided to investors as at 30 June each year in an annual report: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – investment allocation by asset type; – investment asset liquidity profiles; – liability maturity profiles; – leverage ratios (including leverage embedded in the assets of the fund, other than listed equities and bonds); – derivatives counterparties engaged (including any capital protection providers); – monthly and annual investment returns over a prior five year period (or, where the Fund has not been operating for five years, returns since inception); and – key service providers (if they have changed since the latest report given to investors). The following information will be provided on a monthly basis and hosted on www.avivainvestors.com.au: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the current total NAV of the Fund and the redemption value of a unit in each class of units of the Fund (for further information on how the NAV of the Fund is calculated, please refer to Section 9.3 'Unit Pricing'); – the current total net asset value of the Underlying Fund and the redemption value of shares in the Underlying Fund; – the key service providers of the Fund and the Underlying Fund (if they have changed since the last report given to investors); – the net return on the Fund's and the Underlying Fund's assets after fees, costs and taxes; – any material change in the risk profile or change to the investment strategy of the Fund and the Underlying Fund; and – any change in the individuals playing a key role in investment decisions for the Fund and the Underlying Fund. For further information see Section 11 'Additional Information'.

2.2 DISCLOSURE PRINCIPLES

The following table provides details of the disclosure principles and where further information relating to the disclosure principles is set out in this PDS.

Disclosure Principle 1: Investment Strategy

Investment Strategy	The investment objective of the Fund is to target a gross return in Australian Dollars of 3% per annum above the Reserve Bank of Australia cash rate over a 3-year rolling period, regardless of market conditions. The investment objective of the Underlying Fund is the same as that of the Fund. Although the Underlying Fund is part of a master fund structure the base currency denomination of which is Euros, a foreign exchange hedge established for the Underlying Fund is intended broadly to result in the Fund's investment in the Underlying Fund producing a return in Australian dollars not materially affected by movements in the Euro-Australian dollar exchange rate. Please refer to Section 5 'About the Underlying Fund' for more information on investment strategies, and Disclosure Principle 3 for information on the due diligence performed on the Underlying Fund.
Typical assets of the Fund and the Underlying Fund	The Fund currently intends only to invest in the Underlying Fund, and in cash or cash equivalents. The Underlying Fund typically will gain exposure to the global bond market by investing in bonds, money market instruments and bank deposits, including sovereign bonds issued by governments, government agencies and municipalities, high yield bonds, convertibles and contingent convertibles. The Underlying Fund's investments typically will include asset-backed securities (ABS) and mortgage-backed securities (MBS) invested in European and North American markets, and also in UCITS and other types of collective investments. Underlying assets of ABS and MBS typically will include credit card receivables and various types of loans such as auto loans and commercial or residential mortgages. The Underlying Fund will make extensive use of derivatives for investment, hedging and portfolio management purposes. The derivatives used may include, but are not necessarily limited to, futures, options, swap contracts, swaptions, total return swaps, currency forwards (deliverable or non-deliverable), foreign exchange options and credit default swaps.
Asset location	The Fund's shares in the Underlying Fund are unlisted equities whose legal domicile is in Luxembourg. The Underlying Fund's assets are investments domiciled in various jurisdictions around the world. These include but are not limited to Australia, France, Germany, Japan, Singapore, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Currency denomination	The Fund currently intends only to invest in the Underlying Fund, and in cash or cash equivalents denominated in Australian Dollars.
	The Underlying Fund invests in assets of various currency denominations including, but not limited to, Australian Dollars, Euro, Japanese Yen, Singapore Dollars, United States Dollars, and British Pounds.
Leverage	The use of derivatives by the Underlying Fund (see below) will result in the Fund being exposed to the Underlying Fund's leverage due to exposure to the derivatives in which the Underlying Fund invests. As a UCITS regulated fund, the Underlying Fund may also borrow directly, although generally only up to 15% of its assets, provided the borrowing is on a temporary basis or else for the purchase of immovable property (e.g. office premises). See 'Disclosure Principle 6: Leverage' for further details.
Derivatives	The Fund will not invest directly in derivatives. However, the Underlying Fund is authorised to invest in a range of financial derivatives instruments. The Fund's indirect exposure to derivatives is not intended to, but may amplify the gains and losses of the Fund. See 'Disclosure Principle 7: Derivatives & Structured Products' for further details.
Short selling	The Fund itself will not take short positions. At the Underlying Fund level, short exposure is allowed through the use of derivatives referred to above. See 'Disclosure Principle 8: Short Selling' for further details.
Investment Returns and Assumptions	The Fund's investment returns are dependent on the skill of the Underlying Fund Investment Manager in allocating the assets of the Underlying Fund across opportune investments at any given time. The allocation decisions of the Underlying Fund Investment Manager are based on the techniques set out in further detail in Section 5. The Australian Dollar currency hedging implemented for the Underlying Fund is designed to reduce, but not eliminate, currency risk and is a passive, not speculative, strategy.
Diversification Guidelines and Limits	The Fund currently intends only to invest in the Underlying Fund and in cash or cash equivalents, and will not otherwise diversify its investments. The Underlying Fund will establish a broadly diversified spread of investments across a wide range of global asset classes and markets to reduce the volatility of its returns and target positive returns regardless of market conditions. The Underlying Fund is subject to the risk diversification rules prescribed under the UCITS Regulations. These include (but are not limited to) rules which prescribe that:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – except in the case of certain EU registered institutions, generally not more than 10% of the Underlying Fund's net assets may be invested in transferable securities or money market instruments of a single issuer, and multiple investments each being more than 5% of the Underlying Fund's net assets in a single issuer, may not in total make up more than 40% of the Underlying Fund's whole portfolio; – the limit of 10% described above rises to 35% if the transferable securities or money market instruments are issued or guaranteed by a Member State of the European Union or its local authorities or by a non-Member State or public international body of which one or more Member States are members; and – aggregate investment in other funds must not exceed 10% of the Underlying Fund's whole portfolio.
Risks of Strategy	The primary risks of the Fund's investment strategy relate to the risks of the Underlying Fund, including risks of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – more volatile than expected returns leading to a loss of capital and or failure to achieve the target return objective; – a loss of key personnel, making it difficult for the Underlying Fund to implement its stated strategy; and – counterparty default, fraud or insolvency, or other issues which cause the Underlying Fund to cease or to be wound up requiring the Fund to redeem its investment in the Underlying Fund. The Fund and Underlying Fund will seek to minimise counterparty risk by entering into transactions with counterparties which, in the opinion of the Fund Investment Manager or the Underlying Fund Investment Manager, are reputable and well regulated, have sound financial backing, and where transactions are collateralised wherever possible and documented under industry standard documentation such as the International Swaps and Derivatives Association Master Agreement (ISDA). Additional risks are discussed in Section 8 'Risk Factors to Consider'.
Investment Strategy Changes	Trust Co. reserves the right to alter the Fund's investment strategy at its discretion when it considers necessary or desirable. The Underlying Fund may also alter its investment strategy at its discretion. Investors will be notified prior to any material change in the investment strategy of the Fund or Underlying Fund.

Disclosure Principle 2: Investment Manager

About the Investment Manager	The investment manager of the Fund is Aviva Investors Pacific Pty Ltd (AIP), an Australian established company (ABN 87 153 200 278, AFSL 411458). AIP ultimately is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aviva plc, one of the world's largest insurance companies, and forms part of the Aviva Investors business group. AIP's business primarily consists of marketing the global investment products of Aviva Investors to Australian and New Zealand investors, and managing funds similar to the Fund. The management company of the Underlying Fund is Aviva Investors Luxembourg S.A. (the Management Company), which has in turn appointed AIGSL to be the Underlying Fund Investment Manager. AIGSL is domiciled in the United Kingdom and is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

Key individuals at the Investment Manager	At the date of this PDS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the key person involved in managing the affairs of the Fund is Brett Jackson, who has over 20 years' experience of financial markets; – the key persons employed by AIGSL to manage the investment processes of the Underlying Fund are Dan James, James McAlevey, Orla Garvey and Joubeen Hurren, who are all based in London, UK; and – the key persons employed by AIGSL to provide oversight of the investment processes of the Underlying Fund are Euan Munro and Trevor Leydon who are both based in London, UK. Each key person will devote substantially all of their business time to managing, or advising about, Aviva Investors investment products (including the Fund and the Underlying Fund). The amount of time spent by each key person on the Fund and Underlying Fund is set to achieve an effective implementation of the Fund and Underlying Fund's investment strategies, although the relevant personnel may also be involved in managing or advising a number of other investment strategies traded from time to time. Please refer to Section 6 for detailed biographies.
Terms of the Investment Manager's appointment	AIP has been appointed as the Fund Investment Manager in accordance with the terms of a master Investment Management Agreement (IMA) dated on or about 21 May 2015, as amended from time to time. Under the terms of the IMA, AIP's appointment may be terminated at any time if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – AIP suffers an insolvency related event, such as having a receiver appointed over its assets or undertaking, or it enters into liquidation or is placed under official management; – AIP ceases its business of investment management, or breaches its duties or obligations in a way Trust Co. as Responsible Entity believes materially adversely affects the rights of the members of the Fund, and AIP fails to rectify the breach to the reasonable satisfaction of Trust Co. within a reasonable notice period; – Trust Co. considers it reasonably necessary to terminate AIP's appointment to ensure compliance with any applicable Australian laws; – the Fund terminates in accordance with its Constitution or the Corporations Act; – Trust Co. ceases to be the responsible entity of the Fund; – a related body corporate of AIP is appointed manager in its place; – a special resolution is passed by the members of the Fund at a meeting duly convened in accordance with the terms of the IMA directing Trust Co. as responsible entity to terminate AIP's appointment. AIP may also terminate its appointment as Fund Investment Manager at any time on notice to Trust Co.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – to take effect three months after the date of the notice (or such lesser period as Trust Co. agrees); or – to take effect immediately if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Trust Co. ceases to be the responsible entity of the Fund; or – AIP suffers an insolvency related event. Upon termination of the IMA, AIP will be entitled to receive all fees accrued up to the date of termination. AIGSL has been appointed to manage the assets of the Underlying Fund in accordance with the provisions of the Underlying Fund's prospectus. AIGSL's appointment as the Underlying Fund Investment Manager may be terminated by three months' written notice, or immediately if AIGSL ceases to be authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority of the United Kingdom.

Disclosure Principle 3: Fund Structure

Investment Structure

The Fund is a registered management investment scheme established as an Australian unit trust. It is designed as a feeder fund vehicle for Aviva Investors Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable (Aviva Investors SICAV). Aviva Investors SICAV is an open ended investment company incorporated in Luxembourg managed by AIGSL, a company which ultimately is wholly owned by Aviva plc.

Aviva Investors SICAV acts as a master fund structure and segregates its assets into separate portfolios of assets or 'Sub-Funds'. Each Sub-Fund may then issue shares of different classes, reflecting, for example, different currency denominations, distribution policies or fee structures. Each Sub-Fund or share class is then managed according to its own investment objective. Each Sub-Fund is legally segregated from each other Sub-Fund, and the assets of one Sub-Fund are not available to satisfy the creditors of any other Sub-Fund.

One of the Sub-Funds established by Aviva Investors SICAV is known as the 'Aviva Investors - Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund', which in turn has issued shares in various currency denominations and classes. One of those SICAV Sub-Fund share classes is the Australian dollar currency hedged 'Fh' share class, which has been established for investment by feeder funds domiciled outside Luxembourg. This share class is the Fund's only investment other than cash or cash equivalents.

Key Service Providers

Trust Co. as the Fund's Responsible Entity has appointed:

- AIP as the Fund Investment Manager;
- JPM as the Fund's Custodian and Administrator, with responsibility for providing custody, unit application, redemption, transfer, scheme valuation and unit pricing services;
- PriceWaterhouseCoopers (ABN 52 780 433 757) as the Fund's financial and compliance plan auditor; and
- KPMG (ABN 511 9466 0183) as the Fund's tax agent.

The Fund and AIP as its investment manager are both regulated by ASIC. AIP holds AFSL 411458.

Aviva Investors SICAV has appointed:

- Aviva Investors Luxembourg S.A. as the Management Company of the SICAV, which in turn has appointed AIGSL as the Underlying Fund Investment Manager;
- J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. as its Depositary and Listing Agent;
- RBC Investors Services Bank S.A. as its registrar and transfer agent; and
- PriceWaterhouseCoopers Société Cooperative as its auditor.

Aviva Investors SICAV is regulated by Luxembourg's Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier.

AIGSL is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority of the United Kingdom.

Monitoring Service Providers	Trust Co. operates a comprehensive risk-based service provider review program to ensure that performance is monitored independently and tested on an ongoing basis. The frequency of certain monitoring activities varies but occurs not less than quarterly.
	The implementation of Trust Co.'s service provider monitoring is overseen by Trust Co.'s compliance committee appointed in accordance with section 601JA(1) of the Corporations Act. The compliance committee reports to Trust Co.'s board of directors and directly to ASIC if the committee believes that any compliance breaches committed in respect of registered schemes have not been adequately addressed and remedied.
Related party arrangements	The investment manager of the Fund, AIP, is a related party of AIGSL, the current investment manager of the Underlying Fund. Both AIP and AIGSL are wholly owned subsidiaries of Aviva plc.
Material arrangements other than on arm's length terms	All of the arrangements between the Fund and the Underlying Fund and their respective contracting parties are on an arm's length basis.
Due diligence performed on Underlying Fund	The Fund Investment Manager carefully considered and reviewed a range of materials, including historic fund performance information, industry assessment reports, and reports of key ratings agencies in determining the Underlying Fund to be an appropriate investment for the Fund.
Aggregate fees and costs	For details on the fees and costs of the Fund, including those payable at the Underlying Fund level, please see Section 7 'Fees and Other Costs'.
Jurisdictions involved in the Fund structure	The Fund is a managed investment scheme established in Australia and registered with ASIC (ARSN 622 207 881). AIP is incorporated, domiciled and has its principal place of business in Melbourne, Australia. All of the Fund's other direct service providers are domiciled in Australia. The Underlying Fund is established and domiciled in Luxembourg. AIGSL, the Underlying Fund Investment Manager, is established, domiciled, and has its principal place of business in London, United Kingdom. All of the Underlying Fund's other direct service providers are domiciled in either the United Kingdom or Luxembourg.

Disclosure Principle 4: Valuation, Location & Custody of Assets

Valuation Policy	The value of the Fund's investment in shares of the Underlying Fund will be calculated by the Fund's Administrator, JPM, which will rely on the share price and NAV of the Underlying Fund calculated by the Depositary of the Underlying Fund, J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A.. Further detail is set out in the Articles of Aviva Investors SICAV, a copy of which is available on request. The value of the Fund's Units will be calculated on each Business Day on the basis of the Fund's NAV. The Fund's NAV will equal the gross value of its assets, primarily the value of its investment in the Underlying Fund plus any cash or cash equivalents on hand, less the value of the Fund's liabilities, such as accrued investment management fees, service provider fees, tax liabilities, duties and other operational charges.
Asset Types	The Fund will hold shares in the Underlying Fund, and cash or cash equivalents. As a UCITS regulated fund, the Underlying Fund may only invest in assets deemed to be 'Eligible Assets' under the UCITS Directive. For UCITS purposes, these are broadly defined as 'transferable securities', 'money market instruments', 'liquid financial assets', 'transferable securities', 'money market instruments embedding derivatives', 'instruments which aid efficient portfolio management', and 'index-replicating UCITS'.

	The types of assets in which the Underlying Fund may invest include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Australian government bonds; – Australian corporate bonds; – international government bonds; – international corporate bonds; – supranational bonds; – structured products; – exchange-traded derivatives; – over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives; – instruments with convertible characteristics; – cash equivalent investments; and – investments in other mutual funds including non-UCITS funds with UCITS-like traits.
Allocation ranges	The Fund currently intends only to hold shares in the Underlying Fund and cash or cash equivalents. It is intended that the Fund will only hold a small proportion of overall assets in cash or cash equivalents for operational purposes. The Underlying Fund allocates assets across different asset classes with the flexibility afforded under the UCITS Regulations. Typically the Underlying Fund will have the following ranges of gross exposure (expressed as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's net asset value) for the asset types listed below, although these ranges are subject to change at the discretion of the Underlying Fund Investment Manager. <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Asset Type</th><th>Typical range of gross exposure (as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's NAV)</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Direct investment in Australian corporate and government bonds</td><td>0–100%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Direct investment in international corporate and government bonds</td><td>0–100%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Supranational bonds</td><td>0–100%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Structured products (e.g. credit default swaps)</td><td>0–100%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Exchange-traded (listed) derivatives (e.g. listed futures, options)</td><td>0–1200%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Over-the-counter (unlisted) derivatives (e.g. interest rate swaps)</td><td>0–1200%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Cash equivalent investments and Cash</td><td>0–100%</td></tr> <tr> <td>Investments in other mutual funds</td><td>0–10%*</td></tr> </tbody> </table> (this does not include exchange traded funds)	Asset Type	Typical range of gross exposure (as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's NAV)	Direct investment in Australian corporate and government bonds	0–100%	Direct investment in international corporate and government bonds	0–100%	Supranational bonds	0–100%	Structured products (e.g. credit default swaps)	0–100%	Exchange-traded (listed) derivatives (e.g. listed futures, options)	0–1200%	Over-the-counter (unlisted) derivatives (e.g. interest rate swaps)	0–1200%	Cash equivalent investments and Cash	0–100%	Investments in other mutual funds	0–10%
Asset Type	Typical range of gross exposure (as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's NAV)
Direct investment in Australian corporate and government bonds	0–100%
Direct investment in international corporate and government bonds	0–100%
Supranational bonds	0–100%
Structured products (e.g. credit default swaps)	0–100%
Exchange-traded (listed) derivatives (e.g. listed futures, options)	0–1200%
Over-the-counter (unlisted) derivatives (e.g. interest rate swaps)	0–1200%
Cash equivalent investments and Cash	0–100%
Investments in other mutual funds	0–10%*
Geographic location of assets	Other than cash or cash equivalents denominated in Australian Dollars, the Fund currently holds only shares in the Underlying Fund, which is domiciled in Luxembourg. The Underlying Fund invests in assets domiciled in various jurisdictions. Geographic location is generally not a consideration in determining the Underlying Fund's investments.

Custodial arrangements of the Fund	JPM has been appointed to be the Fund's Administrator and Custodian under the terms of a custody agreement dated 15 June 2015. Shares in the Underlying Fund will be held in the name of a nominee of JPM, and cash may be held in accounts opened in the name of a nominee of JPM or in the Fund's own name. J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. has been appointed to be the Underlying Fund's Depositary, and holds the Underlying Fund's investments and other assets in the names of its nominees on behalf of the Underlying Fund and its shareholders. J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. may also appoint and use sub-custodians for jurisdictions where it is not practical for J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. to hold investments itself.

Disclosure Principle 5: Liquidity

Liquidity of the Fund	As at the date of this PDS, Trust Co. reasonably expects to be able to realise at least 80% of the Fund's assets at the value ascribed to those assets in calculating the Fund's NAV within 10 days. See Disclosure Principle 9 'Withdrawals' and Section 8 'Risk factors to consider' for further details.

Disclosure Principle 6: Leverage

Use of leverage & restrictions on the use of leverage	As a UCITS regulated fund, the Underlying Fund is subject to borrowing restrictions contained in the UCITS Directive which generally restricts its direct borrowings by way of bank and non-bank loan finance to no more than 15% of its assets, provided the borrowing is either on a temporary basis or else for the purchase of immovable property (e.g. office premises). In addition to the leverage permitted through direct borrowing, the Underlying Fund is also allowed, and intends, to invest in and utilise the leverage inherent in financial derivatives instruments, and which will result in substantial levels of effective leverage. See further explanation below under 'Source of leverage including type'. The Fund does not intend to gear its investment exposure to the Underlying Fund, but is authorised under its Constitution to borrow, including on an unsecured basis. The Fund currently does not intend to borrow for any purpose other than for short term cash management purposes. The Fund currently does not have any additional investment policy in relation to acceptable types or amounts of leverage used by the Underlying Fund.
Source of leverage including type	The source of the Underlying Fund's leverage primarily will be the leverage inherent in the financial derivatives instruments in which it invests. Examples include, but are not limited to, 'over-the-counter' (or 'OTC') off-market interest rate swaps, options, swaptions, total return swaps, credit default swaps, forwards, and exchange traded futures and options contracts. The counterparties to these instruments typically are prudentially regulated institutions.
Collateral usage	The Fund will not use any of its investments in the Underlying Fund or any other investments as collateral to allow it to make any other investment. The Underlying Fund commonly will deposit cash collateral with exchanges and counterparties as security for its contractual obligations under derivatives instruments.

Maximum anticipated & allowed level of leverage

The Fund will not gear its investment in the Underlying Fund, and currently does not intend to borrow other than for short term cash management purposes.

As described in 'Use of leverage & restrictions on the use of leverage' above, the Underlying Fund utilises the leverage inherent in the financial derivatives instruments in which it invests.

The Underlying Fund manages its risks, including risks arising from the use of derivatives and leverage, by monitoring a variety of risk statistics calculated on a daily basis. These include Value at Risk (VaR) and stress and scenario testing.

Since it is UCITS regulated, the Underlying Fund is required to manage its investment risk according to a harmonised definition of 'global exposure' which does not necessarily equate to an actual measure of investment gearing. The Underlying Fund's actual gearing will be a function of its direct borrowings and the extent to which the Underlying Fund takes advantage of the margin requirements of the derivatives exchanges and OTC counterparties through which it establishes its positions.

The leverage for the Underlying Fund, excluding the leverage embedded in any holdings of listed equities and bonds, is anticipated to range between 800% and 1200% of its NAV most of the time, although it is possible that its leverage may be higher or lower from time to time.

For example, if the Underlying Fund was invested in only one asset class, and was leveraged to 1200% of its NAV, then for every +/- $1.00 change in the price of that asset, the Underlying Fund's NAV could be expected to change by +/- $12.00, or by a factor of twelve times.

For example, assume that:

- the Underlying Fund has a long position in the German ten year bund futures contract equal to 1200% of its NAV; and
- the market price of that contract falls by 0.5%,
-then the Underlying Fund's NAV would fall in percentage terms by $(1200 \times -0.005) = -6.0\%$.

There is no strict limit on the Underlying Fund's effective leverage, however it is not anticipated it will regularly exceed 1200%, or $12.00 (gross) per $1 of net asset value invested in cash.

This means that the Underlying Fund uses leverage with the intention not to increase the risk and volatility of its returns, but to diversify its exposures and to reduce the risk and volatility of its returns.

A worked example of how this is achieved is set out in the next section.

Example showing impact of leverage on investment returns & losses

Assume the Underlying Fund has the following positions as a percentage of its Net Asset Value (short positions a negative sign):

Holdings

Cash and fixed interest 100%

Long physical bond positions 20%

Derivatives:

- long German ten year bund index call options 5%
 - long US ten year bond index futures 5%
 - short British ten year bond (gilt) index futures -5%
 - interest rate swaps 50%
 - currency forwards 50%
 - derivatives replicating 'short' bond exposure -20% (i.e. derivatives whose value will rise as the prices of the reference bonds fall)
 - credit derivatives 30%
- Net exposure from these holdings as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's net asset value:
 $= (100 + 20 + 5 + 5 - 5 + 50 + 50 - 20 + 30) = 235\%$
- Gross exposure (as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's net asset value):
 $= (100 + 20 + 5 + 5 + 50 + 50 + 20 + 30) = 285\%$

Performance

If each asset class performs as follows (on an annual basis as a percentage of the Underlying Fund's net asset value):

- Cash and fixed interest +2%
- Long physical bond positions -3%
- Derivatives (net) +2.25%

then each $100 invested in the Underlying Fund will return:

- Cash and fixed interest +$2.00 (0.02×100)
- Long bond positions -$0.60 (-0.03×20)*
- Derivatives +$3.71 (0.0225×165)

And so the Underlying Fund's gross annual return = +$5.11 per $100 invested (or +5.11%).

(*Note: Investors experience a negative return when a long position decreases in value or a short position increases in value.)

Disclosure Principle 7: Derivatives & Structured Products

Purpose & rationale for the use of derivatives	The Fund will not invest directly in derivatives, but the Underlying Fund will invest in financial derivatives instruments linked to various asset classes, in particular but not exclusively linked to bonds, currencies, interest rates, and financial indices. The purposes and rationale for investing in derivatives are to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. gain investment exposures to particular asset classes more efficiently than would be possible by investing in the referenced underlying physical assets, due to transaction, storage and other costs, or to illiquidity that may exist in the physical market; b. utilise the liquidity, risk and return characteristics of an investment available in a derivative market; and c. take advantage of the gearing inherent in derivatives contracts to help spread and manage risk across a wider range and notional size of investment positions than would otherwise be possible.
Types of derivatives used	The Underlying Fund may invest in various types of derivatives (both exchange traded and OTC) including but not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. financial futures contracts; b. options and swaptions (on interest rates, indices, bonds, currencies, commodity indices or other instruments); c. forward contracts (including foreign exchange contracts); d. swaps (including total return swaps, foreign exchange swaps, interest rate swaps, inflation swaps, swaps on baskets of bonds, volatility swaps and variance swaps); e. credit derivatives (including credit default derivatives, credit default swaps and credit spread derivatives); and f. structured financial derivative instruments such as credit-linked swaps. The Fund does not currently have any additional investment policy in relation to acceptable types of, or exposure limits on, derivatives used by the Underlying Fund.
Criteria for engaging in derivative counterparties	The Underlying Fund only invests in derivatives listed on an exchange or where the derivatives counterparty is an institution whose financial stability has been subject to standard counterparty identification and due diligence.
Key risks associated with collateral requirements	The key risks for the Underlying Fund in depositing collateral is the insolvency risk of the exchange or broker through which an exchange traded position may be required to be established, or of an OTC counterparty. These risks are mitigated in practice by the regulated status of the exchanges and brokers through which the Underlying Fund invests (and supervision by their regulator), and by the Underlying Fund conducting thorough due diligence of all other derivatives counterparties.

Disclosure Principle 8: Short Selling

Rationale	The Fund itself will not engage in short selling. As a UCITS regulated fund, the Underlying Fund may establish short positions, but only using derivatives. The purpose of these kinds of trades is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – help the Underlying Fund target an absolute return irrespective of the direction of the underlying markets – i.e. make a profit whether markets are rising or falling; and – spread investment exposure and minimise risk. The Underlying Fund may establish positions using derivatives which offer short exposure to reference assets as part of the investment strategy of the Underlying Fund, or for hedging purposes. The Fund does not currently have any additional investment policy in relation to acceptable types of, or limits on, short selling by the Underlying Fund.
Risks of short selling	Short selling can provide the ability for an investor to profit from falling market prices. Short selling involves a higher level of risk than buying a security. The maximum loss when a security is bought is limited to the amount invested. In contrast, short selling creates the risk of an unlimited loss, as the price of the underlying security could theoretically increase without limit, thus increasing the cost of covering the short position. As the Fund invests almost solely in the Underlying Fund, such losses at the Underlying Fund level would impact the value of the Units in the Fund. The following example shows potential gains and losses from short positions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. the Underlying Fund wishes to short sell 100 bonds issued by a sovereign State, say, and which are priced at $120; b. to execute the short sale, the Underlying Fund enters into a derivative instrument with an investment bank so that the Underlying Fund will gain the value of any decline in the value of shorted bonds, but must pay the investment bank the amount of any rise in the value of shorted bonds; c. the price of the bonds subsequently falls to $115, and the investment bank now owes the Underlying Fund $5 per shorted bond, which makes a profit of $500 on the trade; d. alternatively, if the price of the bonds rises to $125 the Underlying Fund would owe the investment bank $5 per shorted bond, and would make a loss of $500 on the trade.
Risk management in relation to short selling	The Underlying Fund Investment Manager will routinely monitor position size and undertake ongoing reviews to manage short selling risks as part of its overall approach to risk management. See Section 5 'About the Underlying Fund' for more details of the Underlying Fund's approach to risk management.

Disclosure Principle 9: Withdrawals

Significant risk factors / limitations on ability to withdraw	Investors are generally able to redeem from the Fund while the Fund is liquid, as defined in the Corporations Act. This can be done on any Business Day, other than a Saturday, Sunday or a day which is a public holiday in Luxembourg, the United Kingdom or Australia. If you wish to see a list of days on which you may not redeem, please see the Fund Investment Manager's website: www.avivainvestors.com.au Trust Co. may suspend the right to make a withdrawal request where it considers suspension to be in the best interests of Unit Holders. Suspension may be immediate or take effect at a specified time, and may be indefinite or for a specified period of time, as Trust Co. determines. Trust Co. may also suspend the withdrawal of Units (by suspending the determination of acceptance or rejection of a withdrawal request) for such period as it reasonably determines is appropriate in other circumstances, including where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. trading in underlying investments is restricted or suspended; b. an emergency exists in a market where investments are domiciled; c. prices cannot be reasonably, promptly or accurately ascertained; d. remittances of monies cannot be carried out at normal rates of exchange; e. proceeds of withdrawals of units cannot be transmitted to or from the Fund; f. sufficient assets cannot be realised at an appropriate price due to circumstances outside of the control of Trust Co.; g. the Underlying Fund or any relevant Sub-Fund is being or may be wound-up; h. the determination of the 'NAV per share' of the Underlying Fund is suspended; or i. circumstances otherwise exist which Trust Co. reasonably considers that to permit withdrawals of units would not be in the best interests of unit holders as a whole. Redemptions may also be subject to restrictions on any given day based on the net cash flows experienced by the Underlying Fund, subject to the terms of the Underlying Fund Prospectus. While the Responsible Entity must pay the redemption proceeds of accepted withdrawal requests within 21 calendar days of receiving the withdrawal request, it may delay payment of proceeds during extreme market events. Specific restrictions also apply if a Unit Holder seeks to redeem more than 5%, or Unit Holders in aggregate seek to redeem more than 10% of the aggregate number of Units in issue at that time. Please see Section 9.2 for details. While the Fund is not "liquid", as defined in the Corporations Act, requests for withdrawal may only be acted upon under a statutory withdrawal offer. Given that the Fund will invest predominately all of its assets in the Underlying Fund, a key risk for investors is a suspension of the determination of the NAV per share of the Underlying Fund, and/or a suspension of redemptions from the Underlying Fund. As a Luxembourg domiciled SICAV, the Underlying Fund must manage its liquidity in accordance with European Union regulations governing UCITS. However, the Underlying Fund may suspend the redemption of shares in a range of circumstances, as detailed in its prospectus.
How to withdraw	Please see Section 9.2 for details of how to make withdrawals from the Fund.
Changes to withdrawal rights	Changes to the withdrawal rights will be notified to Unit Holders in accordance with applicable law.

3 ABOUT THE RESPONSIBLE ENTITY

The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited (Trust Co.) is the Responsible Entity of the Fund.

Trust Co. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Perpetual Limited (ABN 86 000 431 827), which is a diversified financial services group providing specialised investment management, wealth advice and corporate fiduciary services to individuals, families, financial advisors and institutions, and which is listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ticker: PPT).

Perpetual has three core businesses:

- Perpetual Investments – specialised asset management;
- Perpetual Private – personal wealth advisory to high net worth segments; and
- Corporate Trust – corporate fiduciary services.

Perpetual's offices are located in Sydney (its principal registered office), Canberra, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide and Perth.

Trust Co. holds an AFSL (number 235150), which authorises it to operate registered managed investment schemes. Trust Co. is responsible for operating the Fund in accordance with the Fund's Constitution and the Corporations Act, but may delegate and contract out various functions, including the investment management function.

4 ABOUT THE FUND

The Fund is a managed investment scheme registered with ASIC under the Corporations Act (ARSN 622 207 881), which is designed with a specific goal to grow capital. The Fund does not currently intend to pay distributions (although will make any minimum distributions of income necessary to comply with its obligations under relevant taxation laws).

The table below offers factors that investors may wish to consider in framing a decision whether to invest in the Fund or not.

AN INVESTMENT IN THE FUND MAY BE SUITABLE FOR INVESTORS WHO:	AN INVESTMENT IN THE FUND MAY NOT BE SUITABLE FOR INVESTORS WHO:
Wish to invest in a fund that offers exposure to world-wide bond markets and aims to achieve capital growth over a 3-year rolling period.	Believe that direct, unhedged long term investment in bonds is a preferred investment strategy.
Are looking for an investment to form the core element of their portfolio or for a fund to diversify their existing portfolio.	Already hold a diversified range of investments with a core investment strategy in place.
Wish to invest in an outcome orientated fund with little correlation to traditional asset classes.	Wish to invest in a fund benchmarked against a bond index or other market.
Are willing to accept that the fund's aims are not guaranteed and so their capital is at risk and the return target may not be achieved.	Are unwilling to put their capital at risk.
Are aiming to invest for at least 5 years.	Are looking to invest for less than 5 years.
Are willing to accept that the Underlying Fund in which the Fund invests uses advanced investment techniques such as derivatives, and that the Fund will be exposed to risks associated with these techniques and instruments.	Are unwilling to accept the use of advanced investment techniques such as derivatives and the risks associated with these techniques and instruments.

4.1 HOW THE FUND OPERATES

The Fund is designed to operate as a 'feeder' fund for the Aviva Investors – Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund, a Sub-Fund of Aviva Investors SICAV, which is an open-ended investment company incorporated in Luxembourg.

The Fund currently intends only to invest in the Underlying Fund and cash or cash equivalents, and aims to provide a positive total return under all market conditions over the medium to long term. The Fund's investment objective is to target a gross return in Australian Dollars of 3% per annum above the Reserve Bank of Australia cash rate over a 3-three year rolling period, regardless of market conditions.

The Fund typically will be fully invested in the Underlying Fund or in cash or cash equivalents, with cash or cash equivalents typically not exceeding 15% of the Fund's Net Asset Value.

The investment objective of the Underlying Fund mirrors the investment objective of the Fund.

4.2 SIGNIFICANT FEATURES AND BENEFITS

ACCESS TO UNDERLYING FUND

The Fund provides you with the opportunity to access the Underlying Fund through an Australian-domiciled managed investment scheme.

MANAGEMENT EXPERTISE AND RESEARCH CAPABILITIES

By investing in the Fund, you can gain access to the management expertise and research capabilities of the Fund Investment Manager and the Underlying Fund Investment Manager. The expertise and experience of the key personnel of each is set out in Section 6 below.

ACCESS TO INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES AND OVERSEAS MARKETS

A managed fund product such as the Fund pools your money with that of other investors. This allows you to benefit from the Fund's (and the Underlying Fund's) ability to invest in a diversified portfolio of investment opportunities.

RISK CONTROL

The Underlying Fund Investment Manager continually monitors risk and is conscious of preserving investor capital. Continuous monitoring of the Underlying Fund's investments guides the investment mix and allows it to act quickly should the investment case alter.

A VaR report will be produced and monitored on a daily basis for the Underlying Fund on the following criteria:

- one month holding period;
- 99% confidence levels; and
- stress testing, as and when appropriate.

The Fund provides you with comprehensive investment reporting, including:

- online access to all the information on your investment; and
- regular investment statements and an annual tax statement to keep you up to date on your investment.

4.3 SUGGESTED INVESTMENT TIME HORIZON

The minimum suggested investment timeframe is at least 5 years.

4.4 INVESTMENT STRATEGY AND GUIDELINES

Other than a small amount of cash or cash equivalents held in the Fund for operational purposes, the Fund currently intends to invest only in shares of the Underlying Fund.

Accordingly, the performance of the Fund is almost wholly dependent on the performance of the Underlying Fund and the Underlying Fund Investment Manager's expertise in allocating the assets of the Underlying Fund.

Labour standards and environmental, social or ethical considerations

The Responsible Entity indirectly takes into account environmental, social, ethical considerations and labour standards (ESG Factors) as part of a broader environmental, social and governance (ESG) approach in selecting, retaining and realising investments by investing primarily in shares of the Underlying Fund, which currently takes into account certain ESG Factors. Apart from the ESG Factors taken into account by the Underlying Fund, the Responsible Entity itself otherwise has no fixed view regarding standards or considerations relevant to ESG Factors, the extent these are taken into account in respect of the Fund, the timeframe for monitoring or reviewing investments of the Fund in light of ESG Factors, or what will occur and the timeframe in which it will occur if investments cease to meet any policies it has on ESG Factors.

Rather, the Underlying Fund Manager determines the standards and considerations for ESG Factors that are applied by the Underlying Fund, and the extent to which they are taken into account. Currently, the Underlying Fund Manager seeks to exclude investments in the following:

- companies manufacturing cluster munitions, landmines, blinding laser weapons, chemical or biological weapons, nuclear weapons, non-detectable fragment weapons or companies whose primary business is manufacturing firearms for civilian use (Weapon Companies);

- companies manufacturing tobacco products (Tobacco Companies); and
- companies that are assessed by the Underlying Fund Manager to do significant damage to the environment and/or to society generally (including from the perspective of ethical considerations and labour standards). The Underlying Fund Manager may consider additional products or services for exclusion in future against this policy. For this assessment, the Underlying Fund Manager currently takes into account certain international guidelines and standards such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Labour Organisation core labour standards and its own and external research.

It should be noted that in determining whether an investment falls into any one of the above categories, the Underlying Fund Manager adopts certain principles in its assessment. For example, the Underlying Fund Manager will not necessarily consider an investment to be part of the above categories if the Underlying Fund invests in a company which derives 5% or less of their revenue from a particular activity in the above categories, or the Underlying Fund has immaterial indirect holdings in a company that falls into one of the above categories (such as within an index expressed via a future or total return swap).

The Aviva Investors Global Responsible Investment (GRI) team is responsible for helping to govern and maintain the responsible investment characteristics of the Underlying Fund, which will be updated from time to time.

The GRI team is a member of the Strategic Investment Group (SIG) and provides ESG oversight of the investment ideas in order to help ensure that material ESG issues are considered in the investment process and that any stewardship obligations are well maintained. They are also responsible for ensuring good governance in relation to the list of controversial holdings.

The GRI team also conducts quarterly audits to help ensure that the specific list of excluded companies above do not appear within the portfolio of the Underlying Fund as direct holdings. Any security in Weapons Companies or Tobacco Companies will generally be divested by the Underlying Fund as soon as possible within prevailing market conditions, and no later than 90 working days following the audit. For companies that are assessed by the Underlying Fund Manager to do significant damage to the environment and/or to society generally, the Underlying Fund Manager may instead choose to engage with companies in a concerted manner to help address its concerns, before it looks to divest. The Underlying Fund Manager will review the methodology for taking ESG Factors into account from time to time, but has no fixed approach to such monitoring.

In addition, the Aviva Investors' dedicated Responsible Investment Officer (RIO) network works with Aviva Investors' Global Responsible Investment (GRI) team to integrate ESG Factors in the investment analysis and decision-making process for the Underlying Fund.

Aviva Investors has an inter-departmental approach towards forming forward-looking positions on key political, economic and social trends and expected outcomes. Quarterly meetings of representations from across Aviva Investors' business culminates in the official Aviva Investors' House View, which cascades back through the organisation and helps guide medium to long-term investment positions. The GRI Team is a key component in this process and ensures that material ESG Factors are considered when determining firm-wide macro outlooks.

VOTING

Aviva Investors considers voting in respect of securities held to be an important part of the investment process and has in place a formal voting policy.

Aviva Investors has explicitly incorporated corporate responsibility disclosure and performance in its voting since 2001, and was one of the first asset managers to do so globally.

Aviva Investors' Corporate Governance and Corporate Responsibility Voting Policy is reviewed annually and signed off by the Aviva PLC Board. Further information on Aviva Investors' approach to responsible investing is available free of charge on request to the Fund Manager (using the details set out in this PDS).

5 ABOUT THE UNDERLYING FUND

The Underlying Fund is an Australian Dollar share class of a Sub-Fund of Aviva Investors SICAV, an open-ended investment company incorporated in Luxembourg, managed by AIGSL. A copy of the prospectus of Aviva Investors SICAV which describes the SICAV Sub-Fund is available at www.avivainvestors.com.au.

Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy (AIMS) is a range of outcome-orientated funds designed to address key concerns frequently articulated by customers of Aviva Investors. These concerns are to:

- grow capital;
- receive an income;
- beat inflation; and
- outperform plan liabilities.

AIGSL launched the first fund in the AIMS range of funds on 1 July 2014.

The Aviva Investors AIMS Fixed Income SICAV Sub-Fund was launched on 1 December 2016 and aims to achieve capital growth throughout the investment cycle, but is not designed to pay any income.

Seeking consistently good returns in different economic environments requires the active deployment of investment risk. The Underlying Fund seeks to utilise investment risk in order to deliver positive returns across all market conditions. Successfully undertaking a sophisticated application of the risk budget can give investors the potential for a more favourable balance between risk and return than traditional assets, particularly with lower volatility.

AIGSL believes that:

- the average investor has a short time horizon, which means that markets show significant inefficiency and cyclical over longer three-year timeframes;
- these long-term opportunities can be exploited by patient investors able to cope with short-term instability in markets.

The Underlying Fund aims to achieve positive performance in all market conditions by combining investments in multiple long-term strategies, acknowledging that the short-term performance of any single strategy can vary. AIGSL believes that while any one strategy may underperform, other strategies can be expected to perform well. As a result, the Underlying Fund aims to provide stability and strong return potential for investors through intelligent deployment of the risk budget and a robust portfolio construction which matches multiple strategies together.

The Underlying Fund invests in a diverse range of investment opportunities, principally targeting the spectrum of traditional asset classes. Strategies are chosen specifically to aim to work well together, in positive and negative markets and to achieve diversification and reduce risk. Unlike most traditional asset class funds whose performance is measured against an index, the Underlying Fund is measured against the return of cash.

The core philosophy behind the AIMS range of funds is to address the needs of different investor types and provide positive returns irrespective market conditions.

To achieve this objective, AIGSL has appointed fund managers and risks specialists with complementary areas of expertise to work closely together to:

- actively blend a global range of strategies to create a diversified fund; and
- ensure that the right blend of strategies exists to help meet the Underlying Fund's risk and return targets.

5.1 AIGSL'S PROCESS

AIGSL approaches the task of managing the Underlying Fund in a step process by:

- identifying suitable investment opportunities in the context of market conditions taking into account its house view;
- assessing the strength of individual investment ideas through a collaborative team process;
- blending chosen strategies that are designed to work well together, taking into account how best to manage risk and diversify investment exposures; and
- managing, monitoring and rebalancing investment positions against realised gains, losses, and risk limits.

STEP 1: HOUSE VIEW

Research by AIGSL's dedicated team of strategists and economists helps set the central 'House View'. This covers the key drivers of the major economies and forecasting medium-term returns for many asset classes. This helps forecast the most likely scenarios facing markets and economies over the business cycle. The team produces a number of 'risk scenarios' around the central House View against which portfolios can be tested.

STEP 2: IDEA GENERATION

Individual investment teams at AIGSL, including the multi-asset and fixed-income teams are tasked with identifying investment opportunities for potential inclusion in the Underlying Fund. They do this through their existing research process. Any identified opportunity is written up in an "Idea Template", which covers five key questions.

These questions are:

- 1) What is the opportunity?
- 2) Does the opportunity contain more upside than downside risk over the relevant time period?
- 3) Why is the opportunity available?
- 4) What generic market circumstances will make or break this idea?
- 5) What are the key risk factors?

The way investment strategies are expected to interact with each other across a range of potential market conditions is crucial to the way AIGSL seeks to manage the Underlying Fund. Ultimately, a combination of strategies is sought which together seek to maximise the chance of achieving the Underlying Fund's return objective, and manage its volatility.

These strategies fall into three broad categories:

- market strategies,
- opportunistic strategies, and
- risk-reducing strategies.

These categories are the basis for diversification and a key element in risk reduction.

- Our focus is on diversified sources of income and return
- Focus on three years

- Selective ideas that we seek to exploit over three year horizon
- Market dislocations create opportunities for income and return

- In times of market stress, these strategies can significantly add to the portfolio's returns
- A sophisticated approach to portfolio diversification

Market strategies

The market strategies will focus on harvesting risk premia from fixed income markets which are considered to offer attractive long-term returns. These strategies are typically referred to as the Underlying Fund's central investment scenario, or 'House View', of where markets are going.

The Underlying Fund's portfolio managers rely on the work of AIGSL's investment strategy team fundamentally to analyse the state of the business cycle. Using the House View as the starting point, the portfolio managers seek to determine where their collective views differ from other views in the marketplace, and then look for trade opportunities offering perceived value based on this comparison.

For example, the portfolio managers might believe that an economy is entering a period of growth earlier than many in the market expect. In this instance the Underlying Fund may look to capitalise by making investments that will increase in value as a central bank increases interest rates during the early phase of a healthy economic cycle.

Market strategies will aim to generate positive returns over the medium term, in this case three years, if the House View is correct.

Opportunistic strategies

Opportunistic strategies will aim to profit from market mispricing that may exist due to market segmentation, central bank policy intervention or regulatory changes.

For example, the portfolio managers might believe that as an economy's economic outlook worsens, the relevant central bank may intervene and cut interest rates. In this instance there may be a number of strategies that could be used to generate a return, such as buying sovereign fixed income bonds, which could be expected to increase in value as interest rates decline.

Other examples include:

- central bank policy divergence where the Underlying Fund seeks to benefit from currency movements or the divergence of yields between sovereign debt of different countries;
- seeking to capitalise on emerging market growth through investment directly into emerging market sovereign debt;
- inflation versus deflation trades and the purchase of inflation linked sovereign debt; and
- investment into the sovereign debt of commodity exporting countries in order to take advantage of commodity prices rising.

Risk-reducing strategies

Risk reducing strategies will aim to generate returns in times of market stress and remain neutral to positive in the Underlying Fund's central investment scenario. This is an essential component to the Underlying Fund as it deliberately looks to identify strategies that make money if the House View is wrong.

Investment ideas are presented to AIGSL's Strategic Investment Group (SIG) for evaluation. This group meets at least quarterly on a formal basis and decides on the investment merits of proposed investment opportunities on a case-by-case basis. The SIG consists of key investment professionals from across AIGSL, representing a wide range of disciplines. This forum enables selected investment ideas from specialist investment teams to be considered for inclusion in the Underlying Fund. While the SIG operates as a debating chamber, consensus is sought on investment strategy.

The Underlying Fund's key portfolio management team regularly presents reviews of the Underlying Fund's investment portfolio to the SIG, including the rationales for decisions to reduce or close-out positions, or to defer or reject the implementation of investment ideas proposed by the SIG. Investment ideas that have been deferred or rejected nevertheless are tracked, enabling the portfolio managers to monitor their possible contribution to portfolio risk and return.

The SIG has the following representation:

New members may join the committee from time to time at the chair's discretion.

STEP 3: IDEA EVALUATION

Investment ideas are presented to AIGSL's Strategic Investment Group (SIG) for evaluation. This group meets at least quarterly on a formal basis and decides on the investment merits of proposed investment opportunities on a case-by-case basis.

The SIG consists of key investment professionals from across AIGSL, representing a wide range of disciplines. This forum enables selected investment ideas from specialist investment teams to be considered for inclusion in the Underlying Fund.

While the SIG operates as a debating chamber, consensus is sought on all points. The portfolio-management team also presents a review of the portfolio including the rationales for any decisions to reduce or close out existing positions, or to defer or reject the implementation of approved investment ideas into the Underlying Fund. Investment ideas that have been deferred or rejected by the portfolio-management team will be formally tracked and maintained by this team. This enables the portfolio managers to monitor the stand-alone performance and risk of the investment idea and its potential contribution to portfolio risk.

The SIG has the following representation:

New members may join the committee from time to time at the chair's discretion.

STEP 4: PORTFOLIO CONSTRUCTION

AIGSL believes that the way it constructs the Underlying Fund is as important as developing good investment ideas.

Risk considerations are at the heart of the Underlying Fund's portfolio construction and a contribution-to-risk approach is followed rather than a traditional asset-allocation approach.

This means that portfolio managers work in conjunction with the Underlying Fund's dedicated risk-analysis team to assess the expected risk and return of each strategy, the ease with which a strategy can be exited, and whether the strategy will work if the Underlying Fund grows substantially in size.

By blending each strategy in the appropriate proportions, the portfolio managers aim to generate lower overall portfolio risk than the sum of the risks of each individual strategy. Individual strategies are also tested to see how they would perform in different market conditions, from the most to the least likely, and how each strategy might affect the overall Fund.

Not all investment ideas approved by the SIG are included in the Underlying Fund and the Underlying Fund's key portfolio managers have final discretion about when to add to, or remove a strategy from the investment portfolio.

All investment ideas, whether in the portfolio or not, are reviewed quarterly at the SIG.

STEP 5: PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

AIGSL's portfolio-management team is responsible for managing regular cash flows and rebalancing the Underlying Fund to target weights. A key focus is on managing liquidity of positions as well as the relevant exit process for each position.

The Underlying Fund's investment portfolio is monitored on an ongoing basis and reviewed regularly. The in-house performance team and the risk team provide the portfolio managers with regular performance and risk attribution reports. Based on this feedback, investment holdings are reviewed and changes are implemented as and when necessary.

In addition, the investment risk team monitors each strategy's independent risk, return distribution and contribution to total portfolio risk measured by its impact on portfolio volatility and VaR.

The AIGSL Liquidity Team is responsible for managing any excess cash. It follows a traditional approach to cash management with the objective of delivering a competitive return given credit, liquidity, and duration constraints, and diversification requirements as set by the portfolio managers. The aggregate impact of cash investments is included in the analysis produced by the investment-risk and portfolio management teams.

6 INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

The Fund Investment Manager is Aviva Investors Pacific Pty Ltd (AIP), which ultimately is a wholly owned subsidiary of Aviva plc, one of the world's largest general insurers, and forms part of the Aviva Investors business group of Aviva plc.

AIP's business primarily consists of marketing the global investment products of Aviva Investors to Australian investors and New Zealand, and managing funds similar in structure to the Fund.

The Underlying Fund Investment Manager is Aviva Investors Global Services Limited (AIGSL), a wholly owned subsidiary of Aviva plc and also part of the global Aviva Investors Group. AIGSL is domiciled in the United Kingdom and is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

The key personnel of the Fund Investment Manager and the Underlying Fund Investment Fund are set out below.

KEY PERSONNEL – FUND INVESTMENT MANAGER

BRETT JACKSON

Managing Director, Australia, Aviva Investors

At the date of this PDS, the key person involved in managing the affairs of the Fund Investment Manager is Brett Jackson who is an experienced financial services industry professional with over 26 years' experience of product structuring and business development. Prior to being employed by AIP, Brett was employed by BlackRock in Australia as Director, Senior Account Manager.

Brett holds a Bachelor of Business Studies (Finance) from Massey University, New Zealand as well as the New Zealand Society of Investment Analysts' Certificate in Investment Analysis.

KEY PERSONNEL – UNDERLYING FUND INVESTMENT MANAGER

EUAN MUNRO

Global CEO, Aviva Investors

Euan is Chief Executive Officer of Aviva Investors with responsibility for capitalising on Aviva Investors expertise in managing Aviva's own funds, becoming a stronger third party manager and increasing Aviva Investors profit contribution to the Group.

Euan was most recently global head of multi-asset investing and fixed income teams at Standard Life Investments with responsibility for the management of their fixed income and multi-asset investment funds. He was also a member of their board and Standard Life plc's executive leadership team.

Euan holds a BEng degree in Physics and Electronics from Edinburgh University. In addition, he holds a post-graduate diploma in actuarial sciences from Heriot Watt University and is a fellow of the Institute of Actuaries.

Trevor Leydon oversees Aviva Investors investment risk and portfolio construction for multi-assets providing overarching quantitative discipline to the portfolio management process. This includes monitoring and provision of risk parameters at individual portfolio level and top level reporting to senior management.

Prior to joining in 2013 Trevor was responsible for UK & Ireland risk control at UBS Global Asset Management. He joined the industry in 1998 working for HSBC's investment bank in risk before moving to Santander's global banking and market risk team. Trevor is a fellow of the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants. He holds a Masters in Accounting and Finance from the University of Ulster, having graduated from Dublin Business School.

7 FEES AND OTHER COSTS

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100 000 to $80 000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower contribution fees and management costs where applicable.

Ask the Fund or your financial adviser.

To Find Out More

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed investment fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

7.1 FEES ASSOCIATED WITH AN INVESTMENT IN THE FUND

This document shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the Fund's assets as a whole. Taxes are set out in Section 10 of this PDS. You should read all the information about fees and costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

This table gives an example of how the fees and costs for this managed investment product can affect your investment over a 1 year period. You should use this table to compare this product with other managed investment products.

EXAMPLE – Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund		Balance of $500,000 with a contribution of $5,000¹ during year²
Contribution fees	Nil	For every additional $5,000 you put in, you will be charged $0.
PLUS Management Costs	1.19% per annum of the Net Asset Value of the Fund ³	And, for every $500,000 you have in the Fund you will be charged $5,950 each year.
EQUALS Cost of Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund	1.19% per annum of the Net Asset Value of the Fund ³	If you had an investment of $500,000 at the beginning of the year and you put in an additional $5,000 during that year, you would be charged fees of:
		$5,950
		What it costs you will depend on the fees you negotiate.

1. We are required to provide an example based on additional contribution of $5,000. However, the minimum additional investment amount for the Fund is $250,000 (unless we determine otherwise).

2 The calculation assumes that the additional $5,000 is invested in the Fund at the end of the period, and that there is a constant account balance of $500,000 throughout the year.

3 This figure includes estimates. Additional fees and costs may apply. For more detail see the Additional Explanation of Fees and Costs in Section 7.2 below.

7.2 ADDITIONAL EXPLANATION OF FEES AND COSTS

This section provides important information about fees and costs that you may be charged. All fees are, where applicable, inclusive of GST less any reduced input tax credits.

CONTRIBUTION FEE

The Constitution provides that from each application for Units, Trust Co. as the responsible entity, may receive an initial fee of up to 5% of the application money deducted from the application money. However, at the date of the PDS, Trust Co. does not charge a contribution fee.

MANAGEMENT COSTS

Fund and Underlying Fund management fees: an aggregate capped amount of 0.65% of the Fund NAV per annum, which covers:

- the Fund management fee paid to the Fund Investment Manager; and
- the Underlying Fund management fee paid to the Underlying Fund Investment Manager.

Other ordinary Fund level costs: an aggregate capped amount of 0.05% of the Fund NAV per annum, which covers various Fund operating fees and costs described below but which excludes extraordinary costs. The types of fees and costs which fall within the 0.05% operating fees and costs cap are described below under the following headings:

- "Responsible Entity fees"; and
- "Other Fund level expenses" (excluding extraordinary costs).

Extraordinary Fund level costs: these include costs associated with calling and holding unitholder meetings, litigation and terminating the Fund. These amounts are uncapped and include estimates and are borne directly by the Fund.

Other indirect costs: broadly, these are other amounts that directly, or indirectly, reduce the return on an investment in the Fund (including at the Underlying Fund level) that are not charged to Unitholders as a fee. These amounts are uncapped and include estimates.

See further detail below.

FUND MANAGEMENT FEE

The Responsible Entity pays to AIP as Fund Investment Manager an investment management fee as an expense out of the Fund's assets. This fee forms part of the aggregate capped amount of 0.65% of the Fund NAV per annum described above.

RESPONSIBLE ENTITY FEES

The Constitution provides that Trust Co., as the Responsible Entity, may receive a management fee of up to 3% per annum of the Fund Value. The management fee accrues on a daily basis.

The Constitution also provides that Trust Co. as the Responsible Entity of the Fund may receive remuneration in providing certain additional administration services that would not be provided in the ordinary course by a professional third party responsible entity. Such remuneration is to be at reasonable hourly rates, which are to be no greater than commercial arms-length rates and must not in any event exceed a maximum hourly rate of $1,000 per hour (indexed quarterly according to the 'All groups CPI weighted average of eight capital cities' published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics). This fee is payable out of the Fund's assets at the end of each calendar month.

Under current arrangements, the Fund Investment Manager has agreed to bear Trust Co.'s fees directly, but may be reimbursed out of the Fund's assets on a quarterly basis although only up to the aggregate amount capped for Fund operating fees and costs of 0.05% per annum, described above. This means that the Fund Investment Manager will bear Trust Co.'s fees over and above the 0.05% cap of the Fund's NAV.

OTHER ORDINARY FUND LEVEL COSTS

Under the Constitution, all other expenses properly incurred by Trust Co. as Responsible Entity in connection with the Fund (including the establishment of the Fund) or in performing the Responsible Entity's obligations under the Constitution are payable or can be reimbursed out of the Fund.

Under current arrangements, the Fund Investment Manager has agreed to bear any other expenses of Trust Co. as Responsible Entity directly, subject to quarterly reimbursement by the Fund up to the aggregate capped amount of 0.05% per annum of the Fund's NAV described above (excluding extraordinary costs).

Such expenses typically include administration, custodial, accounting, audit, legal, government charges, filing, postage, courier, facsimile and telephone, printing and establishment expenses.

Extraordinary costs, including costs associated with calling and holding unitholder meetings, litigation and terminating the Fund are not subject to the 0.05% cap of the Fund's NAV, and are borne directly by the Fund.

OTHER ORDINARY FUND LEVEL COSTS

Under the Constitution, all other expenses properly incurred by Trust Co. as Responsible Entity in connection with the Fund (including the establishment of the Fund) or in performing the Responsible Entity's obligations under the Constitution are payable or can be reimbursed out of the Fund.

Under current arrangements, the Fund Investment Manager has agreed to bear any other expenses of Trust Co. as Responsible Entity directly, subject to quarterly reimbursement by the Fund up to the aggregate capped amount of 0.05% per annum of the Fund's NAV described above (excluding extraordinary costs).

Such expenses typically include administration, custodial, accounting, audit, legal, government charges, filing, postage, courier, facsimile and telephone, printing and establishment expenses.

Extraordinary costs, including costs associated with calling and holding unitholder meetings, litigation and terminating the Fund are not subject to the 0.05% cap of the Fund's NAV, and are borne directly by the Fund.

INDIRECT COSTS

- The management fee paid to the Underlying Fund Investment Manager as an expense out of the Underlying Fund assets, as set out in the Aviva Investors SICAV prospectus. This forms part of the aggregate capped amount of 0.65% of the Fund NAV per annum described above. The Underlying Fund Investment Manager bears a range of regular costs of the Underlying Fund out of this fee (including custody, administration, audit and professional service fees) in respect of shares held by the Fund.
- Certain costs associated with OTC derivatives entered into by the Underlying Fund. Broadly, these relate to embedded costs reflecting the difference between the actual return on the derivative and the return on an underlying reference asset (for derivatives other than options), or the difference between the cost incurred to acquire the derivative and the amount that would be obtained on disposing of it (for derivatives which are options). Some of these costs are required to be calculated on a notional basis by law.

TRANSACTIONAL AND OPERATIONAL COSTS

Transactional and operational costs are also incurred in managing the Fund. These may include costs incurred by way of brokerage, buy-sell spreads, settlement costs (including related custody costs), clearing costs and any stamp duty paid on investments at the Fund and the Underlying Fund level.

An investor protection fee may be charged at the Underlying Fund level on transactions to protect the existing investors within the Underlying Fund in certain circumstances when there is strong demand to buy or redeem shares in the Underlying Fund.

Further, on Dealing Days (i.e., on days when the Underlying Fund processes orders on its shares) when trading in the Underlying Fund's shares is excessive (as defined at that time by the Board of Aviva Investors SICAV), the Underlying Fund's NAV may be adjusted by the application of 'swing pricing'. 'Swing Pricing' means that the Underlying Fund's NAV is adjusted upward when there is strong demand to buy its shares, and downward when there is strong demand to redeem its shares. The adjustment may vary over time but will normally not exceed 2% of the Underlying Fund's NAV per share unless exceptional market conditions occur. The thresholds where swing pricing is triggered are set by the Underlying Fund's investment manager, AIGSL, and may vary over time. Swing pricing is intended to help protect investors who continue to hold shares from the potentially negative effects on NAV per share that can be created by large volumes of transactions in the Underlying Fund's shares.

Transactional and operational costs are an additional cost to the investor, but are not a fee paid to the Responsible Entity, or the Fund Investment Manager. The Responsible Entity's estimate of these costs (as at the date of this PDS) for the current financial year is 0.55% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

No buy/sell spread on Units is currently payable, and accordingly any transactional and operational costs resulting from issues and withdrawals are currently borne by the Fund as a whole as and when occurred.

However, the Responsible Entity has the power to incorporate a buy/sell spread into issue and withdrawal Unit Prices, up to an amount which reflects the Responsible Entity's estimate of the transaction costs expected to be incurred in buying and selling the Fund's assets as a result of investments and withdrawals by investors. This estimate may take into account factors such as (but not limited to) historical transaction costs and anticipated levels of contributions and withdrawals. The purpose of incorporating a buy/sell spread would be to allocate the costs of buying and selling the Fund's assets to those investors transacting in the Fund's Units. While a buy/sell spread would be an additional cost to the investor, it is not a fee paid to Trust Co., as the Responsible Entity, or the Fund Investment Manager. It would be paid to the Fund and is reflected in the Fund's Unit Price.

ADMINISTRATION FEES FOR PLATFORM OPERATORS

The Fund Investment Manager and Trust Co., as the Responsible Entity, may enter into arrangements to pay administration fees to Platform operators in connection with the listing of the Fund on their investment menus. This fee is paid by the Fund Investment Manager and not by the Fund. It is not charged out of the assets of the Fund and is not an additional charge to Unit Holders.

FEES FOR INDIRECT INVESTORS

Additional fees and costs may apply for Indirect Investors accessing the Fund through a Platform. These fees and costs are stated in the offer document provided by the relevant Platform operator.

ADVISOR REMUNERATION

No commission is payable by Trust Co. to advisors in relation to the Fund.

ALTERNATIVE FORMS OF REMUNERATION

Trust Co. may, subject to law, provide alternative forms of remuneration, which include professional development, sponsorship and entertainment for licensed financial advisors, dealer groups and master trust or Platform operators.

Where such benefits are provided, the cost is borne by Trust Co., as the Responsible Entity, or by related parties and, as such, is not an additional cost to Fund investors. Trust Co. maintains a public register of alternative forms of remuneration in accordance with the FSC/FPA Industry Code of Practice on Alternative Forms of Remuneration. Please contact us if you would like to inspect this register.

FEE AND COST CHANGES

The fees and costs described in this PDS can change at any time in accordance with the Constitution and the constituent documents of the Underlying Fund.

If fees and charges payable to Trust Co. increase, Trust Co. will give Unit Holders not less than 30 days' notice before the change occurs. Other costs such as the buy/sell spread and the amount of administration costs recovered from the Fund's assets may change at any time without prior notice to you.

DIFFERENTIAL FEE ARRANGEMENTS FOR WHOLESALE CLIENTS

Trust Co. as Responsible Entity may individually negotiate different fee arrangements with investors classed as 'wholesale clients' for the purposes of the Corporations Act. Please contact us for more information using the details set out in this PDS.

TAXATION

Taxation information is set out in Section 10.

If Trust Co. becomes liable to pay GST on fees not described in this PDS as GST inclusive, it is entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Fund for the amount of GST.

8 RISK FACTORS TO CONSIDER

All investments carry risk. Before making an investment decision it is important to assess the risks and your own financial position to determine whether an investment in the Fund is suitable for you.

When investing in the Fund, it is important to note that the Fund's returns will vary over time. No return is guaranteed and no guarantee can be given that the Fund's investment objectives will be met. Past returns may not be representative of future returns and investors may lose some or all of their money invested.

Additionally, laws (including tax laws) that affect the Fund may change in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns of the Fund.

Each investor's risk tolerance is different. Before investing in the Fund, the factors you should consider include:

- the nature and size of other investments you hold;
- your investment goals and expectations for returns;
- the timeframe over which you are expecting a return on your investment;
- how comfortable you are with fluctuations in the value of your investment; and

- the general and specific risks associated with particular investments.

The significant risks associated with investing in the Fund are explained below. Any of these risks could cause the Fund or the Underlying Fund to lose money, to perform less well than similar investments, to experience high volatility (ups and downs in net asset value), or to fail to meet their objectives over any given period of time. Any of these risks may be present in normal market conditions. Unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events can amplify the risks of ordinary market conditions. In addition, certain risks may change in nature and in relative importance during unusual market conditions, as indicated in the descriptions of these risks.

Prospective investors should read this PDS in full before deciding whether to invest in the Fund and should also consider consulting financial or other professional advisors.

Asset-backed and Mortgage-backed Securities Risk

Mortgage-backed securities, including collateralised mortgage obligations and certain stripped mortgage-backed securities represent a participation in, or are secured by, mortgage loans. Asset-backed securities are structured like mortgage-backed securities, but instead of mortgage loans or interests in mortgage loans, the underlying assets may include such items as motor vehicles instalment sales or instalment loan contracts, leases of various types of real and personal property and receivables from credit card agreements.

Traditional debt investments typically pay a fixed rate of interest until maturity, when the entire principal amount is due. By contrast, payments on mortgage-backed and many asset-backed investments typically include both interest and partial payment of principal. Principal may also be prepaid voluntarily, or as a result of refinancing or foreclosure. The Underlying Fund may have to invest the proceeds from prepaid investments in other investments with less attractive terms and yields. As a result, these securities may have less potential for capital appreciation during periods of declining interest rates than other securities of comparable maturities, although they may have a similar risk of decline in market value during periods of rising interest rates. As the prepayment rate generally declines as interest rates rise, an increase in interest rates will likely increase the duration, and thus the volatility, of mortgage-backed and asset-backed securities.

In addition to interest rate risk (as described above), investments in mortgage-backed securities composed of sub-prime mortgages may be subject to a higher degree of credit risk, valuation risk and liquidity risk (as described above). Duration is a measure of the expected life of a fixed income security that is used to determine the sensitivity of the security's price to changes in interest rates. Unlike the maturity of a fixed income security, which measures only the time until final payment is due, duration takes into account the time until all payments of interest and principal on a security are expected to be made, including how these payments are affected by prepayments and by changes in interest rates.

	The ability of an issuer of asset-backed securities to enforce its security interest in the underlying assets may be limited. Some mortgage-backed and asset backed investments receive only the interest portion or the principal portion of payments on the underlying assets. The yields and values of these investments are extremely sensitive to changes in interest rates and in the rate of principal payments on the underlying assets. Interest portions tend to decrease in value if interest rates decline and rates of repayment (including prepayment) on the underlying mortgages or assets increase; it is possible that the Underlying Fund may lose the entire amount of its investment in an interest portion due to a decrease in interest rates. Conversely, principal portions tend to decrease in value if interest rates rise and rates of repayment decrease. Moreover, the market for interest portions and principal portions may be volatile and limited, which may make them difficult for the Underlying Fund to buy or sell. The Underlying Fund may gain investment exposure to mortgage-backed and asset-backed investments by entering into agreements with financial institutions to buy the investments at a fixed price at a future date. The Underlying Fund may or may not take delivery of the investments at the termination date of such an agreement, but will nonetheless be exposed to changes in the value of the underlying investments during the term of the agreement.
Collateral Risk	If the Underlying Fund enters into a derivatives arrangement that requires it to deliver collateral or other credit support to the counterparty, the Underlying Fund will be exposed to additional risks in respect of that collateral. See Disclosure Principle 7: Derivatives & Structured Products for further details.
Contingent and Convertible Securities Risk	Additional Tier 1 securities - often referred to as contingent convertible notes or "CoCo's" - are perpetual subordinated instruments issued by banks globally, notably in Europe, to meet specific post-financial crisis regulatory requirements. These securities are structured such that they absorb losses at a time of financial stress. A stress event is defined as either a) a breach of a pre-determined core regulatory capital ratio (i.e. common equity Tier 1 capital-to-risk weighted assets falling below either 5.125%, 7% or in a few cases higher levels, depending on the domicile of the issuer) or b) at the request of the regulator should (higher) required capital levels no longer be met (a so-called "point of non-viability" event). Conversion is either into equity (at a price ostensibly fixed at issue) or via a write-down mechanism (again, depending on structure or the jurisdiction of the issuer). Additional Tier 1 securities were first issued in the second quarter of 2013 and there are currently circa 80 liquid issues outstanding from circa 40 (largely European bank) issuers. To date no security has been triggered and all notes remain current. Issuers of such securities may tend to be those that are vulnerable to weakness in the financial markets. Because conversion occurs after a specified event, conversion may occur when the share price of the underlying equity is less than when the security was issued or purchased, resulting in greater potential compared to conventional convertible securities for capital loss. The Underlying Fund's investments in contingent convertible securities may also entail the following risks (non-exhaustive list): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coupon cancellation: for some contingent convertible securities, coupon payments are entirely discretionary and may be cancelled by the issuer at any point, for any reason and for any length of time. - Yield: investors have been drawn to the instruments as a result of the CoCo's often attractive yield which may be viewed as a complexity premium. - Valuation and Write-down risks: the value of contingent convertible securities may need to be reduced due to a higher risk of overvaluation of such asset class on the relevant eligible markets. Therefore, the Underlying Fund may lose its entire investment or may be required to accept cash or securities with a value less than its original investment. - Call extension risk: some contingent convertible securities are issued as perpetual instruments, callable at pre-determined levels only with the approval of the competent authority.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Capital structure inversion risk: contrary to classical capital hierarchy, contingent convertible securities' investors may suffer a loss of capital when equity holders do not. – Conversion risk: it might be difficult for the Underlying Fund Investment Manager to assess how the securities will behave upon conversion. In case of conversion into equity, the Underlying Fund Investment Manager might be forced to sell these new equity shares since the investment policy of the Underlying Fund does not allow equity in its portfolio. This forced sale may itself lead to liquidity issue for these shares. – Unknown risk: the structure of contingent convertible securities is innovative and untested. – Industry concentration risk: investment in contingent convertible securities may lead to an increased industry concentration risk as such securities are issued by a limited number of banks. – Trigger level risk: trigger levels differ and determine exposure to conversion risk depending on the distance of the capital ratio to the trigger level. It might be difficult for the Underlying Fund Investment Manager to anticipate the triggering events that would require the debt to convert into equity.
Counterparty Risk	The Fund or Underlying Fund could lose money if an entity with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the Fund or Underlying Fund (as applicable). If a counterparty fails to meet its obligations, the Fund or Underlying Fund (as applicable) may have the right to try to recover any losses by using any collateral associated with the obligation. However, the value of collateral may be worth less than the cash or securities owed to the fund, whether because of market action, inaccurate pricing, deteriorating issuer credit or market liquidity problems. If a counterparty is late in honouring its obligations, it could affect the ability of the Fund or the Underlying Fund to meet its own obligations to other counterparties and could cause a delay in the processing of redemptions. Making a lending commitment involving a long term or large sum could lead to similar problems. Fees and charges imposed on the Underlying Fund and the Fund by its counterparties may increase in the future, impacting their respective returns. Additionally, OTC markets are not guaranteed by an exchange or clearing corporation and generally do not require payment of margin. To the extent that a fund has unrealised gains in such instruments, or has deposited collateral with its counterparty, that fund is at risk that its counterparty will become bankrupt or otherwise fail to honour its obligations. See 'Risks of Strategy' under Disclosure Principle 1: Investment Strategy for further details.
Credit risk	If the financial health of the issuer of a bond or money market security weakens, the value of the bond or money market security may fall. In extreme cases, the issuer may delay scheduled payments to investors, or may become unable to make its payments at all, and the issuer's bonds or money market securities may become worthless. Additional risk of unusual market conditions: Significant numbers of bond or money market security issuers could become unable to make payments to their investors.
Currency Risk	Changes in currency exchange rates could reduce investment gains or increase investment losses. Exchange rates can change rapidly and unpredictably. Assets in which the Underlying Fund invests are likely to be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Underlying Fund (Euros) and changes in their exchange rates may lead to depreciation in the Euro value of the Underlying Fund. Foreign exchange hedges at the Underlying Fund level may seek to mitigate these effects by using financial instruments (for example, by using FX forward contracts), but these hedges may not be completely effective or even possible or desirable in all circumstances, and speculating on changes in exchange rates may in fact be part of a chosen investment strategy. The use of foreign exchange hedging may also limit potential gains that might be realised should the value of a hedged currency increase.

	The Australian Dollar currency hedging implemented for the Underlying Fund is designed to reduce, but not eliminate, the currency risk between Euros and Australian Dollars, with the aim being that changes in the Euro/Australian Dollar exchange rate after the time of any investment in the Underlying Fund do not by themselves have a material impact on the initial Australian Dollar value of that investment, but this is a passive, not speculative, strategy, and may not be effective.
Derivatives Risk	Derivatives transactions are complex and imply a higher volatility than traditional investments. They may involve a loss that is significantly greater than the cost of the derivative. The pricing and volatility of some derivatives (such as credit default swaps) may diverge from the pricing or volatility of their underlying reference assets. OTC derivatives are private agreements between the Underlying Fund and one or more counterparties, and are less highly regulated than market-traded securities. OTC derivatives carry greater counterparty risk and liquidity risk, and it may be more difficult to force a counterparty to honour its obligations to the Underlying Fund. If a counterparty ceases to offer a derivative that the Underlying Fund had been planning on using, the Underlying Fund may not be able to find a comparable derivative elsewhere and may miss an opportunity for gain or find itself unexpectedly exposed to risks or losses, including losses from a derivative position for which it was unable to buy an offsetting derivative. Because it is generally impractical for the Underlying Fund to divide its OTC derivatives transactions among a wide variety of counterparties, a decline in the financial health of any one counterparty could cause significant losses. Conversely, if the Underlying Fund experiences any financial weakness or fails to meet an obligation, counterparties could become unwilling to do business with the Underlying Fund, which could leave the Underlying Fund unable to operate efficiently and competitively. While exchange-traded derivatives are generally considered lower-risk than OTC derivatives, there is still the risk that a suspension of trading in derivatives or in their underlying assets could make it impossible for the Underlying Fund to realize gains or avoid losses, which in turn could cause a delay in handling redemptions of shares of the Underlying Fund and Units of the Fund.
Emerging markets risk	In general, emerging markets (such as the less developed markets of Asia, Africa, South America, and Eastern Europe) involve higher risks than developed markets (such as those of Western Europe, the US, and Japan), for such reasons as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – political, economic, or social instability; – unfavorable changes in regulations and laws; – excessive fees, trading costs or taxation, or outright seizure of assets; – rules or practices that place outside investors at a disadvantage; – incomplete, misleading, or inaccurate information about securities issuers; – lack of standardized or reliable custody arrangements, particularly in Russia, where the securities are not directly held or controlled by the Custodian or its local agent; – lack of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards; – manipulation of market prices by large investors; – arbitrary delays and unscheduled market closures; and – fraud and corruption.
Fund Risk	Fund risk refers to specific risks associated with the Fund, such as termination and changes to fees and expenses. Trust Co., as the Responsible Entity, may terminate the Fund by notice to investors. Trust Co. aims to manage these risks by monitoring the Fund and acting in the investors' best interests.

Fund Structure Risks

Investing in any type of collective investment involves certain risks an investor would not face if investing in markets directly. Investors in the Fund and the Underlying Fund could experience the following risks:

- the actions of other investors, in particular sudden large outflows of cash, could interfere with orderly management of Fund or Underlying Fund and cause the net asset value of the relevant fund to fall;
- the investor cannot direct or influence how money is invested while it is in the Fund and Underlying Fund;
- any performance fees may create an incentive for a manager to take greater risks than otherwise;
- the buying and selling of investments by the Fund and Underlying Fund may not be optimal for the tax efficiency of any given investor;
- the Fund and the Underlying Fund are subject to various investment laws and regulations that limit the use of certain securities and investment techniques that might improve performance;
- because Units in the Fund and shares in the Underlying Fund are not publicly traded, the only option for liquidation is generally redemption, which could be subject to delays and any other redemption policies set;
- management techniques used by the Fund Investment Manager and the Underlying Fund Investment Management, whether novel or associated with a particular level of performance in the past, could fail to yield the desired results.

In addition, there are risks associated with the structure of the Fund, Underlying Fund and the business interests of Aviva group companies.

These include:

- the fact that any investment in other UCITS or similar investment vehicles is likely to mean that investors will be paying investment and/or management fees to the Fund, the Underlying Fund or similar investment vehicle, and that these combined fees could be higher than the investor might pay to invest directly in a similar type of investment to the underlying UCITS or similar investment vehicle;
- the Management Company, the Underlying Fund Investment Manager, the Fund Investment Manager or their designees may at times find their obligations to the Underlying Fund or the Fund (as applicable) to be in conflict with their obligations to other investment portfolios they manage (although in such cases, all portfolios will be dealt with equitably);
- under certain circumstances, such as if there is pending dispute or tax audit at the time, the Underlying Fund or the Fund may withhold a portion of redemption proceeds as a reserve against possible adjustments or claims arising from the dispute or audit.

The risks of the Fund's structure, as opposed to the investment risks of the Fund's underlying investment objectives and strategy, include the following risks:

- the risk that Trust Co. breaches its AFSL or discontinues its business of acting as Responsible Entity of Australian managed investment schemes or for some other reason is forced to resign as Responsible Entity of the Fund in circumstances where a suitable replacement cannot be found, requiring the Fund to be wound up;
- the risk that AIP breaches the conditions of its AFSL or discontinues its business of acting as Fund Investment Manager of Australian managed investment schemes or for some other reason is forced to resign as Fund Investment Manager of the Fund in circumstances where a suitable replacement cannot be found, requiring the Fund to be wound up; and
- the risk that Aviva Investors SICAV breaches the conditions of its regulated status in Luxembourg or suffers a tax event, reputational event, or one of its service providers suffers a catastrophic interruption to their business which causes Aviva Investors SICAV to cease its business and compulsorily redeem investment in the Underlying Fund.

There are also risks with holding assets overseas and with investing in funds overseas.

General Risks

All investments carry an inherent level of risk. Different investment strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets acquired under the strategy. Assets with the highest expected returns may also carry the highest level of expected risk as defined by the variability of fund returns.

The value of your investment in the Fund will fluctuate and there can be no guarantee against capital loss, nor can there be any assurance that the Fund's or the Underlying Fund's investment objective will be attained. Neither the liquidity of the Fund's investments, nor the ability to redeem your investment from the Fund within the timeframes specified in this PDS are guaranteed.

Past performance is not a guide to future returns and should not be relied on in making an investment in the Fund.

Interest rate risk

When interest rates rise, the values of bonds and fixed income securities in which the Underlying Fund typically will invest generally fall.

Leverage Risk

To the extent the Underlying Fund creates leverage (invests in a way that magnifies the gain or loss it would normally receive from a given investment or group of investments), its net asset value is likely to be more volatile and the risk of large losses is greater.

Liquidity Risk

Any type of security that is not publicly traded may be hard to value, and may be hard to sell at a desired time and price, especially in any volume. This also applies to securities that are publicly traded, but represent a small issue, trade infrequently, or trade on markets that are comparatively small or that have long settlement times. In addition to creating investment losses, liquidity problems could lead to a delay in the processing of requests to redeem investments in the Underlying Fund and the Fund.

Additional risk of unusual market conditions: Any security could become hard to value or sell at a desired time and price.

Market Risk	Prices of many securities change daily, and can fall based on a wide variety of factors, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – political and economic news – government policy – changes in technology and business practices – changes in demographics, cultures and populations – natural or human-caused disasters – weather and climate patterns – scientific or investigative discoveries – costs and availability of energy, commodities and natural resources The effects of market risk can be immediate or gradual, short-term or long-term, narrow or broad.
Money Market Instruments	When short-term interest rates fall, the yield on money market instruments generally falls. Over time, yields on money market investments may not keep pace with inflation, meaning that an investment in the Fund buys less than it did at the time of investment.
Money Market Instruments	The Fund or Underlying Fund could suffer from losses through people, process and system failures.

9 INVESTING IN THE FUND

9.1 APPLICATIONS

PERMITTED INVESTORS

The Fund is available in Australia to persons who qualify as wholesale clients under section 761G of the Corporations Act. Retail clients may invest via investment platforms, but may not invest directly in the Fund. The Fund is also available in New Zealand to 'wholesale investors', as defined in the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (New Zealand).

MINIMUM INITIAL INVESTMENT

The minimum initial investment is $500,000 for all investors or such other amount as we may determine.

MINIMUM ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT

The minimum amount for additional investments is $250,000 for all investors or such other amount as we may determine.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications can be made by sending the completed Application Form attached to this PDS to the Administrator at the address shown on the Application Form and remitting application monies.

If you are remitting application monies via electronic transfer, the application monies should be transferred to the account shown on the Application Form and must be made from an Australian bank account which is in the name of the investor.

If you are remitting application monies by cheque, you should make the cheque payable to 'Aviva Investors - Applications Account' with your name and address included on the back of the cheque, and send it to the address indicated on the Application Form.

The cut-off time for receipt of an Application Form and cleared funds is 2pm AEST on a Business Day. If that application is accepted, Units will be issued at the Issue Price applicable as at the close of that Business Day. An Application Form and cleared funds received after the cut-off time will be treated as received on the next Business Day.

We encourage you to send through your completed Application Form in advance of remitting application monies so that we can confirm the completed form complies with the relevant customer identification rules (see Section 11 for further details) before you make payment.

When an application is accepted, a transaction statement will be forwarded outlining:

- date of acceptance;
- amount invested in the Fund; and
- number of Units issued, the Issue Price and the holding balance.

HOW TO MAKE ADDITIONAL INVESTMENTS

Unit Holders may make additional investments in the Fund by completing the 'Additional Investments Application Form' which is available on the Fund Investment Manager's website at www.avivainvestors.com.au and by depositing cleared funds using the account details provided to you at the time of your initial investment. Deposits into that account will be deemed to be an application for additional Units in the Fund and will be subject to the same application cut-off times that apply to initial investments.

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS

Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) applications for Units cannot be accepted or processed without verifying the investor's identity. See Section 11 for further information. We will not be liable for any losses incurred if processing is delayed or rejected for a prospective investor with incomplete applications.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Unit Holders who participate in these additional investment arrangements should keep a copy of the current PDS and any information that updates that PDS for future reference.

NEW ZEALAND INVESTORS

Applications received from New Zealand investors must specify the application amounts in Australian Dollars.

INCOMPLETE OR REJECTED APPLICATION FORMS

Under the Constitution, we can accept or reject (in whole or in part) any application for Units and are not required to give any reason or grounds for such refusal. Rejected, invalid or incomplete applications will be returned to applicants as soon as possible. Interest is not payable on rejected application monies.

To ensure that your application is processed efficiently, you need to complete all sections of the application form and provide all customer identity verification documents required under the Customer Identification Program (refer to 'Customer Identification Information' in Section 10 of this PDS).

We accept no responsibility for any loss caused to you as a result of non-receipt of any application or cleared funds.

INVESTING THROUGH A PLATFORM

Indirect Investors do not themselves become investors in the Fund, and accordingly have no rights as a Unit Holder. The offer document for your Platform should have further details.

If you are an Indirect Investor, generally the relevant scheme operator acquires the rights of a Unit Holder. Unit Holder rights include the right to attend Unit Holder meetings, to make redemption requests, receive and reinvest distributions, participate in termination proceeds and lodge complaints. Your rights and liabilities will be governed by the terms and conditions of the relevant Platform, which you should read carefully prior to directing the relevant Platform operator to invest in the Fund.

Indirect Investors complete application forms for the Platform, not the Fund, and receive reports from their operator, not the Fund. Enquiries should be directed to that operator.

Minimum investment and redemption requirements may not always be relevant to Indirect Investors because the Platform operator may invest on behalf of a number of Indirect Investors. Indirect Investors will also incur fees and expenses applicable to the Platform, as well as the Fund's fees and expenses. The tax information in the PDS does not specifically cater for Indirect Investors.

COOLING-OFF RIGHTS

Since retail clients may not invest directly in the Fund, there are no cooling-off rights.

Indirect Investors should contact the operator of the relevant Platform about any right to cooling off.

9.2 WITHDRAWALS

MINIMUM WITHDRAWAL

The minimum withdrawal is $250,000, or such other amount as we may determine. If your requested withdrawal would result in your balance falling below the minimum balance, we may treat your withdrawal request as a request to withdraw your entire investment.

WITHDRAWAL PROCESS

While the Fund is not 'liquid', as defined in the Corporations Act, requests for withdrawal may only be acted upon under a statutory withdrawal offer by the Responsible Entity. The remainder of this section applies to the withdrawal process while the Fund is 'liquid'.

If you wish to redeem your Units in the Fund, please complete and submit a copy of the Redemption Form which is available on the Fund Investment Manager's website at www.avivainvestors.com.au under 'Fund Resources'.

Under the Fund's Constitution, when it receives a valid withdrawal request the Responsible Entity has 10 Business Days to consider the request and to notify the Unit Holder whether it rejects or accepts the request. If accepted, the Responsible Entity must pay the redemption proceeds within 21 calendar days of receiving the withdrawal request (except during extreme market events). In practice, however, the Responsible Entity endeavours generally to pay redemption proceeds within 5 Business Days of acceptance of a withdrawal request.

In the event that a Unit Holder requests the withdrawal of more than 5% of the Units on issue, the Responsible Entity may treat the request as five separate withdrawal requests, each for one-fifth of the total number of Units in the original withdrawal request. Each deemed request is then treated as being separately received on the five successive Business Days commencing on the Business Day on which the original withdrawal request was received.

In the event that any Unit Holders (including a Unit Holder referred to in the paragraph immediately above) request the withdrawal of more than 10% of the Units on issue over any period of five consecutive Business Days, the Responsible Entity may treat each withdrawal request as five separate withdrawal requests, each for one-fifth of the total number of Units in the original withdrawal request. Each deemed request is then treated as being separately received in five tranches once every 5 Business Days, commencing on the Business Day on which the original withdrawal request was received (so the second request is deemed to be received on the 6th Business Day after the first request is received, the second on the 12th Business Day after, and so on).

NEW ZEALAND INVESTORS

Withdrawal requests submitted by New Zealand investors must specify the withdrawal amount in Australian Dollars. Withdrawal amounts will be paid in Australian Dollars and investors should be aware that if they are received in a New Zealand dollar denominated bank account, those amounts may be automatically converted into New Zealand dollars at the rate of exchange applied by your nominated bank, and also may be subject to bank charges, subject to the terms and conditions of the relevant bank account.

SUSPENSION OF REDEMPTIONS

Other circumstances in which Trust Co. may suspend redemptions are set out in 'Disclosure Principle 9: Withdrawals'.

9.3 UNIT PRICING

The current Unit Price for the Fund may be obtained by visiting the website at www.avivainvestors.com.au

Unit Prices are determined in accordance with the Fund's Constitution and are usually calculated each Business Day. It is anticipated that the Fund will incorporate transaction costs (ie, a buy/sell spread) into the issue and withdrawal Unit Prices – see Section 7.2 for details. For issue and withdrawal Unit Prices, the NAV is the value of all the Fund's assets less the value of the Fund's liabilities at the valuation time, based on the most recent valuation of assets and determination of liabilities.

As Administrator, JPM will provide independent investment valuation and unit pricing. JPM will rely on the share price determined for the Underlying Fund in determining the Fund's Unit Price.

In rare circumstances, we may suspend unit pricing where we consider it impracticable to calculate a NAV and in accordance with our responsible entity obligations to members.

Applications for new Units and redemptions of existing Units will be processed and therefore made effective as at the next daily valuation date. The redemption monies are normally payable within ten Business Days of the redemption taking place.

A copy of the Responsible Entity's description of the formula and method it uses for determining Unit Prices, the dispositions exercised by the Responsible Entity and its nominees in respect of determining Unit Prices and the documented policy in respect of such dispositions (pursuant to ASIC Class Order 13/657) is available from the Responsible Entity free of charge.

9.4 DISTRIBUTIONS

While the Fund will make the minimum distribution of income necessary to comply with its obligations under relevant taxation laws, it does not otherwise currently intend to make distributions to investors.

If the Fund does make distributions, your entitlement to share of any distribution will be calculated on the basis of the number of Units you hold at the end of the distribution period as a proportion of the number of Units of the Fund on issue at that time and the amount of net income referable to those Units and that class.

You can decide whether you want to receive any distributions by direct deposit into your bank account or in the form of additional units in the Fund by way of reinvestment. The buy/sell spread does not apply to a reinvestment of income so the number of additional units is based on the mid-price.

Unitholders need to complete the appropriate section in the application form to make their choice as to the method of payment of distributions. If no instructions are received, any income distribution will automatically be reinvested using the mid-price applicable on the day the income distribution is payable. You can change how you receive your income distribution by writing to the Fund Administrator, JPM at:

Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund
Link Market Services Limited
PO Box 3721
Rhodes NSW 2138

9.5 NEW ZEALAND INVESTORS

Where New Zealand investors have their distributions, if any, reinvested into the Fund, they will be allotted Units in accordance with the terms and conditions of this PDS. The reinvestment of distributions is offered to New Zealand investors on the following basis:

- at the time the price of the Units allotted pursuant to the reinvestment of distributions is set, Trust Co. will not have any information that is not publicly available that would, or would be likely to, have a material adverse effect on the realisable price of the Units if the information were publicly available;
- the right to acquire, or require Trust Co. to issue, Units will be offered to all investors of the same class, other than those resident outside New Zealand who are excluded so as to avoid breaching overseas laws;
- every investor to whom the right is offered will be given a reasonable opportunity to accept it; and
- Units will be issued or transferred on the terms disclosed to investors, and will be subject to the same rights as Units issued to all investors of the same class who agree to receive the Units.

Available free of charge from the Fund Investment Manager electronically by submitting a request by email to: info.au@avivainvestors.com, and in hard copy, are: copies of the most recent annual report of the Fund (if any); the most recent financial statements of the Fund (if any) and, if those statements are not audited or reviewed by an auditor, a statement to that effect; a copy of the auditor's report on those financial statements (if any), and the PDS and the Constitution for the Fund (including any amendments).

9.6 COMMON REPORTING STANDARD

The OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS) will require certain financial institutions to report information regarding certain accounts to their local tax authority and follow related due diligence procedures. The Fund is expected to be a 'Financial Institution' under the CRS and intends to comply with its CRS obligations by obtaining and reporting information on relevant accounts (which may include your units in the Fund) to the Australian Tax Office (ATO). In order for the Fund to comply with its obligations, we will request that you provide certain information and certifications to us. We will determine whether the Fund is required to report your details to the ATO based on our assessment of the relevant information received. The ATO may provide this information to other jurisdictions that have signed the "CRS Competent Authority Agreement", the multilateral framework agreement that provides the mechanism to facilitate the automatic exchange of information in accordance with the CRS. The Australian Government has enacted legislation amending, among other things, the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia to give effect to the CRS.

10 TAXATION

The following summary of Australian income taxation matters is a general guide only based on the tax laws applicable as at the date of this PDS and does not constitute tax advice. It provides a summary of the Australian income tax implications applicable to the Fund and certain investors. In particular, it applies where investors are individuals, complying superannuation funds or trusts and are residents of Australia for income tax purposes and do not hold their units in the Fund on revenue account. This summary does not apply where investors are companies, where investors are not resident of Australia for tax purposes or where any gain in respect of the disposal of units would be regarded as ordinary income or otherwise taxed on revenue account.

The summary of tax matters outlined below is based on the tax laws applicable as at the date of this PDS which are subject to change.

As the Australian income tax treatment applicable to individual investors may differ, it is recommended that all investors seek their own professional advice on the taxation implications of investing in the Fund.

TAXATION OF THE FUND

GENERAL

The Fund is an Australian resident trust for income tax purposes. The Fund should not be a public trading trust and the Fund itself should not be liable to pay Australian income tax in relation to its income and gains. Rather, the net income of the Fund will be taxable in the hands of Unitholders on a 'flow through' basis (see "Taxation of Australian resident investors" below). This should be the case provided that either Unitholders are presently entitled to the Fund's net income each year or the Fund makes an election to be an Attribution Managed Investment Trust (AMIT), which is intended.

INVESTMENT IN THE UNDERLYING FUND

The Fund's net income should comprise predominantly of the net proceeds from the redemption of shares in the Underlying Fund and interest income less any tax deductible expenditure incurred by the Fund.

When the Underlying Fund redeems shares held by the Fund, Australian tax law will treat the redemption amount as a dividend to the extent the redemption is not debited to an account of the Underlying Fund regarded as a 'share capital account' for Australian tax purposes.

The SICAV of which the Underlying Fund forms a Sub Fund, prepares master accounts and allocates amounts received by way of subscriptions, and requested by way of redemption, to its Sub-Funds. The Underlying Fund will keep a separate record of subscription and redemption amounts and in particular how much of any redemption proceeds relates to original subscription proceeds and how much relates to profits of the Underlying Fund. This treatment should allow that part of any redemption proceeds that relate to subscribed capital to be treated as a return of capital to the Fund, and so taxed as such in the hands of Australian investors in the Fund.

However, there always remains the risk that the Australian Tax Office may take issue with accounting processes adopted by foreign investment funds, especially with respect to accounting for subscriptions as capital, and redemptions as partly capital and partly income. In particular, Luxembourg SICAVs, as open ended corporate structures, are not structures which Australian tax laws have been designed to regulate, and the Australian Tax Office has not issued definitive rulings on every aspect of how investments in SICAVs are to be considered and taxed based on their underlying accounting processes.

The following assumes that when the Underlying Fund redeems the Fund's shares the capital originally invested by the Fund in the Underlying Fund will be debited to an account that qualifies as a 'share capital account' for Australian taxation purposes.

It is expected that the amounts invested for each share in the Underlying Fund will be able to be separately identified by the Underlying Fund and paid out as part of the redemption proceeds. Accordingly, the Fund should not derive capital gains when redeeming shares in the Underlying Fund and any growth in the value of the Fund's investment in the Underlying Fund will be returned as taxable foreign source dividends.

Given that redemptions of shares by the Underlying Fund will be treated on revenue account (as foreign sourced dividends) rather than on capital account for Australian tax purposes, the Fund should not be entitled to the capital gains tax (CGT) discount in respect of these amounts.

Where the Fund is in a tax loss position in any income year, those losses will be quarantined within the Fund and the Fund may be able to utilise those losses to reduce its taxable income in subsequent income years, subject to certain integrity measures.

Australia has anti-deferral regimes that subject certain foreign income to accruals taxation. These regimes include the Controlled Foreign Company (CFC) regime. An investment by the Fund in the Underlying Fund should not result in the CFC provisions applying. For completeness, if the CFC provisions did apply, the Fund would be taxed on an accruals basis on any attributable income.

TAXATION OF AUSTRALIAN RESIDENT INVESTORS

DISTRIBUTIONS

The Fund will provide an annual statement to investors each year to inform them of the amounts that investors should include in their assessable income, the components of the distribution and amounts which may impact the investor's cost base in the Fund. As the Fund only intends to invest in the Underlying Fund and cash or cash equivalents, the components should comprise primarily of foreign dividends and Australian sourced interest income.

Given that redemptions of shares by the Underlying Fund will be treated on revenue account (as foreign sourced dividends) rather than capital account for Australian tax purposes, the Fund is unlikely to distribute capital gains or discount capital gains to investors.

FOREIGN INCOME AND FOREIGN INCOME TAX OFFSETS

There should not be any foreign income tax offsets arising in respect of the investment in the Underlying Fund.

DISPOSAL OF UNITS BY AUSTRALIAN RESIDENT INVESTORS

Any taxable capital gain or assessable income arising from the disposal (including redemption) of an investment in the Fund may form part of the exiting investor's assessable income.

To the extent the disposal gives rise to a capital gain, investors that are individuals, trusts and complying superannuation funds may be eligible for the discount capital gain concession if their investment (Units) has been held for at least 12 months and the Fund and the investor satisfy certain other requirements. The amount of the discount is 50% for individuals and trusts, and 33½% for complying superannuation funds. Any capital losses arising from the disposal of the investment may be used to offset other capital gains the investor may have derived.

TAX FILE NUMBERS (TFN) AND AUSTRALIAN BUSINESS NUMBERS (ABN)

It is not compulsory for an investor to quote their TFN or ABN. However, unless exempted, failure by an investor to quote an ABN or TFN will result in tax being withheld by the Responsible Entity on distributions paid to the investor at the top marginal tax rate plus the Medicare Levy, on gross payments including distributions of income to the investor. The investor may be able to claim a credit in the investors' tax return for any TFN/ABN tax withheld.

By quoting your TFN or ABN on your application form for the Fund, you authorise Trust Co. to apply it in respect of all your investments with Trust Co. If you do not want to quote your TFN or ABN for some investments, you should advise Trust Co.

US TAX WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING UNDER THE FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT (FATCA)

The United States of America has introduced rules (known as FATCA) which are intended to prevent US persons from avoiding tax. Broadly, the rules may require the Fund to report details of all US persons and suspected US persons in the Fund to the US tax authorities, to prevent a 30% FATCA withholding tax on certain income and proceeds of the Fund. The responsible entity may therefore request that investors and prospective investors provide certain information in order to comply with the requirements.

11 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

SUMMARY OF THE CONSTITUTION

The Fund was established under a Constitution dated 10 October 2017.

The Constitution sets out provisions for the establishment of the Fund as a trust, the appointment of and powers of the Responsible Entity, the concept of Units and the rights of Unit Holders, the application for and redemption of Units, the calculation of Issue Prices and redemption prices, the entitlement to and calculation of distributions, the entitlement to fees and expenses, the custody and valuation of assets and other matters including liability, audit, meetings, complaints and a Unit register.

Trust Co.'s responsibilities and obligations, as the Responsible Entity of the Fund, are governed by the Constitution as well as general trust law. Copies of the Constitution are available free of charge by contacting our client service centre.

The Responsible Entity may amend the Constitution if it considers that the amendment will not adversely affect Unit Holders' rights. Otherwise, the Constitution may be amended by way of a special resolution of Unit Holders.

COMPLIANCE PLAN

In accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act and ASIC policy, the Fund has a Compliance Plan. The Compliance Plan sets out measures that Trust Co. will implement to comply with the Corporations Act and the Fund's Constitution. Trust Co. has established an independent Compliance Committee to oversee compliance with the Compliance Plan. The Compliance Committee is required to report breaches of the Constitution and the Corporations Act to the directors of Trust Co., and in some cases, to ASIC. Copies of the Compliance Plan are available free of charge by contacting us.

AUDITOR

The auditor of the Fund is PricewaterhouseCoopers whose principal office is One International Towers Sydney, Watermans Quay, Barangaroo NSW 2000. Under the Corporations Act, an auditor of the Compliance Plan for the Fund must also be appointed. The auditor of the Compliance Plan is also PricewaterhouseCoopers.

KEEPING YOU INFORMED

If at any time the Fund becomes a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act, and while it continues to be a disclosing entity, it will be subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. As a disclosing entity, the Fund will be required to lodge copies of documents with ASIC in relation to the Fund which may be obtained from, or inspected at, an ASIC office.

Unit Holders have a right to obtain from us, free of charge, the following documents:

- the most recent Fund annual financial report lodged with ASIC;
- any half-yearly financial report lodged with ASIC after the lodgement of that annual report and before the date of the PDS; and
- any continuous disclosure notices for the Fund given to ASIC after the lodgement of that annual report and before the date of the PDS.

Unit Holders will also be provided with the following reports:

- application and withdrawal confirmation statements;
- an annual report including audited accounts and information relating to asset allocation, liquidity profiles, asset maturity profiles, leverage, derivatives (if any), investment returns and any changes to key service providers;
- income distributions; and
- annual tax statements.

ENQUIRIES AND COMPLAINTS HANDLING

Trust Co. has established procedures for dealing with complaints. If an investor has a complaint, they can contact the Trust Co. during business hours.

Trust Co. will use reasonable endeavours to deal with and resolve the complaint within a reasonable time but in any case no later than 45 days on receipt of the complaint.

If an investor is not satisfied with the outcome, the complaint can be referred to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), an external complaints resolution scheme of which the Responsible Entity and the Manager are members.

FOS's contact details are:

Financial Ombudsman Service

GPO Box 3
Melbourne Vic 3001
Telephone: 1300 780 808
Facsimile: (03) 96136399
Email: info@fos.org.au
Web: www.fos.org.au

FOS' role and terms of reference are specified in FOS' Rules available from their website www.fos.org.au

Where you invest via a Platform any enquiries and complaints should generally be directed to the Platform operator and not to us. From 1 January 2018 however, all investors (regardless of whether you hold Units in the Fund directly or hold Units indirectly via a Platform) are able to access Trust Co.'s complaints procedures outlined above. If investing via a Platform and your complaint concerns the operation of the Platform then you should contact the Platform operator directly.

CUSTOMER IDENTIFICATION INFORMATION

The Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) (AML Act) and other applicable anti-money laundering and counter terrorism laws, regulations, rules and policies which apply to the Responsible Entity (AML Requirements), regulate financial services and transactions in a way that is designed to detect and prevent money laundering and terrorism financing. The AML Act is enforced by the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC). In order to comply with the AML Requirements, the Responsible Entity is required to, amongst other things:

- verify your identity and source of your application monies before providing services to you, and to re-identify you if they consider it necessary to do so; and
- where you supply documentation relating to the verification of your identity, keep a record of this documentation for 7 years.

The Responsible Entity and Administrator as its agent (collectively, the Entities) reserve the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an Investor and the source of the payment. In the event of delay or failure by the Investor to produce this information, the Entities, may refuse to accept an application and the application monies relating to such application or may suspend the payment of withdrawal proceeds if necessary to comply with AML Requirements applicable to them. Neither the Entities nor their delegates shall be liable to the Investor for any loss suffered by the Investor as a result of the rejection or delay of any subscription or payment of withdrawal proceeds.

The Entities have implemented a number of measures and controls to ensure they comply with their obligations under the AML Requirements, including carefully identifying and monitoring investors. As a result of the implementation of these measures and controls:

- transactions may be delayed, blocked, frozen or refused where an Entity has reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction breaches the law or sanctions of Australia or any other country, including the AML Requirements;

- where transactions are delayed, blocked, frozen or refused the Entities are not liable for any loss you suffer (including consequential loss) caused by reason of any action taken or not taken by them as contemplated above, or as a result of their compliance with the AML Requirements as they apply to the Fund; and
- the Responsible Entity or Fund may from time to time require additional information from you to assist it in this process.

The Entities have certain reporting obligations under the AML Requirements and are prevented from informing you that any such reporting has taken place. Where required by law, an entity may disclose the information gathered to regulatory or law enforcement agencies, including AUSTRAC. The Entities are not liable for any loss you may suffer as a result of our compliance with the AML Requirements.

CHANGING YOUR DETAILS

To change your details (such as address, contact details, bank account and nominated financial adviser) write to us stating your investment account number and name, and the details you wish to change. We collect personal information from you in the application and any other relevant forms to be able to process your application, administer your investment and comply with any relevant laws. If you do not provide us with your relevant personal information, we will not be able to do so.

Privacy laws apply to our handling of personal information and we will collect, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with our privacy policy, which includes details about the following matters:

- the kinds of personal information we collect and hold;
- how we collect and hold personal information;
- the purposes for which we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information;

- how you may access personal information that we hold about you and seek correction of such information (note that exceptions apply in some circumstances);
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles (APP), or a registered APP code (if any) that binds us, and how we will deal with such a complaint; and
- whether we are likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients and, if so, the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located if it is practicable for us to specify those countries.

Our privacy policy is publicly available at our website at www.perpetual.com.au or you can obtain a copy free of charge by contacting us. A copy of the Administrator's privacy policy is publicly available at: www.jpmorgan.com

INDIRECT INVESTORS

If you are investing indirectly through a Platform, we do not collect or hold your personal information in connection with your investment in the Fund. Please contact your Platform operator for more information about their privacy policy.

INITIAL APPLICATION FORM

The Trust Company (Re Services) Limited ABN 45 003 278 831
Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund ARSN 622 207 881

Please tick one box below and complete the relevant sections of the Application Form in capital letters using a black pen.

This Initial Application Form relates to a Product Disclosure Statement dated 8th February 2018 ("PDS") issued by The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited ABN 45 003 278 831, AFSL 235150, for the offer of units in the Aviva Investors Multi-Strategy Fixed Income Fund ("Fund"). Terms defined in the PDS have the same meaning in this Initial Application Form. The PDS contains important information about investing in the Fund, and you are advised to read the PDS before completing this Initial Application Form.

If you are an existing Unitholder(s) and this is an additional investment, please use the Additional Investment Form.

If you are a new investor, or if you are an existing Unitholder(s) and this investment is NOT in the same name(s) and fund as your existing account, please complete the relevant identification forms for your Investor Type noted below in Section 1. The identification forms are available on Aviva Investors website in the section titles "Aviva Investors Fixed Income Fund Documents".

If you apply for Units directly from the Fund (and not via a Platform), then:

- we encourage you to send through your completed application form in advance of remitting application moneys;
- once we receive your application form we will check it to ensure that it complies with the relevant customer identification rules;
- we will then contact you to confirm that your application form has been accepted, and that you should make payment; and
- units will then be issued on the Business Day that your payment is received (or on the following Business Day, if your payment is received after 2pm AEST).

7. DECLARATION

I/we declare and agree each of the following:

- I/we received and accepted this offer in Australia or New Zealand.
- I/we have read the current PDS to which this application applies and have received and accepted the offer in it.
- My/our application is true and correct.
- I am/we are bound by any terms and conditions contained in the current PDS and the provisions of the constitution of the Fund as amended from time to time.
- I/we have legal power to invest.
- If this is a joint application, each of us agrees that our investment is as joint tenants. Each of us is able to operate the account and bind the other to any transaction including investments or withdrawals by any available method.
- If investing as trustee on behalf of a super fund or trust, I/we confirm that I am/we are acting in accordance with my/our designated powers and authority under the relevant trust deed. In the case of a super fund, I/we also confirm that it is a complying fund under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.
- I/we acknowledge that none of The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited ABN 45 003 278 831 or any of their related entities, officers or employees or any related company or any of the appointed service providers including the investment manager and custodian guarantee the repayment of capital or the performance of the Fund or of any particular rate of return by the Fund.
- I/we agree to the anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing statements contained in the PDS. I/we agree to provide further information or personal details to The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited and the custodian if required to meet their obligations under any anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism law and regulations, and acknowledge that processing or my/our application may be delayed and will be processed at the unit price applicable for the business day on which all required information has been received and verified.
- I/we have read and understood the privacy disclosure as detailed in the PDS. I/we consent to my/our personal information being collected, held, used and disclosed in accordance with the privacy disclosure. I/we consent to The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited disclosing this information to my/our financial adviser (named in this form) for units in the Fund. Where the financial adviser no longer acts on my/our behalf, I/we will notify The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited of the change.
- If I/we have appointed an authorised representative, I/we release, discharge and indemnify The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited from any loss, expense, action or other liability which may be suffered by, brought against me/us or The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited for any action or omissions by the authorised representative whether authorised by me/us or not.
- If I/we have appointed a financial adviser, payment to the financial adviser of the amount stated in section 6, which includes any amounts invested under the Savings Plan.
- I/we certify that the information provided in the separate ID forms, including information relating to tax-related requirements, is reasonable based on verifiable documentation.
- The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited may be required to pass on my/our personal information or information about my/our investment to the relevant regulatory authorities, including for compliance with anti-Money laundering and counter-terrorism law and regulations as well as any tax-related requirements for tax residents of other countries.

Additional declaration and agreement for New Zealand investors:

- I/we understand that the PDS is not a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law and that there are likely to be differences between the information provided in the PDS compared to a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law, and that this PDS will not be lodged with the Registrar of Financial Services in New Zealand.
- I/we have read and understand the additional information for New Zealand investors here and on pages 3, 5, 48, 50, 51 and 87 of the current PDS.
- I/we represent and warrant that I am/we are ‘wholesale investors’ as defined in the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (NZ) and that I/we will provide a completed wholesale investors’ safe harbour certificate in accordance with that Act, and other evidence on request to confirm my/our status.
- I/we acknowledge and agree that:
 - I/we have not offered, sold or transferred, and will not offer, sell or transfer, directly or indirectly, Units in the Fund.
 - I/we have not granted, issued or transferred, and will not grant, issue or transfer, any interests in or options over, directly or indirectly, any Units in the Fund, and
 - I/we have not distributed and will not distribute, directly or indirectly, this PDS or any other offering materials in relation to any offer of any Units in the Fund, in each case in New Zealand, other than to a person who is a ‘wholesale investor’, and

COMMON REPORTING STANDARD AND FATCA DISCLOSURE DOCUMENTS

A – Individuals & Sole Traders

B – Australian Companies

D – Australian Regulated Trusts

E – Unregulated Australian and Foreign Trusts

I – Government Bodies

Important information

The OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS) will require certain financial institutions to report information regarding certain accounts to their local tax authority and follow related due diligence procedures. The Fund is expected to be a 'Financial Institution' under the CRS and intends to comply with its CRS obligations by obtaining and reporting information on relevant accounts (which may include your units in the Fund) to the Australian Tax Office (ATO). In order for the Fund to comply with its obligations, we will request that you provide certain information and certifications to us for the Funds' compliance with the CRS. We will determine whether the Fund is required to report your details to the ATO based on our assessment of the relevant information received. The ATO may provide this information to other jurisdictions that have signed the "CRS Competent Authority Agreement", the multilateral framework agreement that provides the mechanism to facilitate the automatic exchange of information in accordance with the CRS.

The Australian Government has enacted legislation amending, among other things, the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia to give effect to the CRS. The CRS will apply to the Funds with effect from 1 July 2017.

2. TAX INFORMATION

Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions:

Is the individual a tax resident of Australia?

Yes

No

Is the individual a tax resident of another Country?

Yes

No

If the individual is a tax resident of a country other than Australia, please provide their tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below. If they are a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

1. Country	<input type="text"/>	TIN	<input type="text"/>	If no TIN, list reason A, B or C	<input type="text"/>

2. DECLARATION

I/we declare and agree each of the following:

- I/we received and accepted this offer in Australia or New Zealand.
- I/we have read the current PDS to which this application applies and have received and accepted the offer in it.
- My/our application is true and correct.
- I am/we are bound by any terms and conditions contained in the current PDS and the provisions of the constitution of the Fund as amended from time to time.
- I/we have legal power to invest.
- If this is a joint application, each of us agrees that our investment is as joint tenants. Each of us is able to operate the account and bind the other to any transaction including investments or withdrawals by any available method.
- If investing as trustee on behalf of a super fund or trust, I/we confirm that I am/we are acting in accordance with my/our designated powers and authority under the relevant trust deed. In the case of a super fund, I/we also confirm that it is a complying fund under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.
- I/we acknowledge that none of The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited ABN 45 003 278 831 or any of their related entities, officers or employees or any related company or any of the appointed service providers including the investment manager and custodian guarantee the repayment of capital or the performance of the Fund or of any particular rate of return by the Fund.
- I/we agree to the anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing statements contained in the PDS. I/we agree to provide further information or personal details to The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited and the custodian if required to meet their obligations under any anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism law and regulations, and acknowledge that processing of my/our application may be delayed and will be processed at the unit price applicable for the business day on which all required information has been received and verified.
- I/we have read and understood the privacy disclosure as detailed in the PDS. I/we consent to my/our personal information being collected, held, used and disclosed in accordance with the privacy disclosure. I/we consent to The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited disclosing this information to my/our financial adviser (named in this form) for units in the Fund. Where the financial adviser no longer acts on my/our behalf, I/we will notify The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited of the change.
- If I/we have appointed an authorised representative, I/we release, discharge and indemnify The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited from any loss, expense, action or other liability which may be suffered by, brought against me/us or The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited for any action or omissions by the authorised representative whether authorised by me/us or not.
- If I/we have appointed a financial adviser, payment to the financial adviser of the amount stated in section 6, which includes any amounts invested under the Savings Plan.

2. DECLARATION CONTINUED

- I/we certify that the information provided in the separate ID forms, including information relating to tax-related requirements, is reasonable based on verifiable documentation.
- The Trust Company (RE Services) Limited may be required to pass on my/our personal information or information about my/our investment to the relevant regulatory authorities, including for compliance with anti-Money laundering and counter-terrorism law and regulations as well as any tax-related requirements for tax residents of other countries.

Additional declaration and agreement for New Zealand investors:

- I/we understand that the PDS is not a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law and that there are likely to be differences between the information provided in the PDS compared to a product disclosure statement under New Zealand law, and that this PDS will not be lodged with the Registrar of Financial Services in New Zealand.
- I/we have read and understand the additional information for New Zealand investors here and on pages 3, 5, 48, 50, 51 and 87 of the current PDS.
- I/we represent and warrant that I am/we are 'wholesale investors' as defined in the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 (NZ) and that I/we will provide a completed wholesale investors' safe harbour certificate in accordance with that Act, and other evidence on request to confirm my/our status.
- I/we acknowledge and agree that:
 - I/we have not offered, sold or transferred, and will not offer, sell or transfer, directly or indirectly, Units in the Fund.
 - I/we have not granted, issued or transferred, and will not grant, issue or transfer, any interests in or options over, directly or indirectly, any Units in the Fund, and
 - I/we have not distributed and will not distribute, directly or indirectly, this PDS or any other offering materials in relation to any offer of any Units in the Fund, in each case in New Zealand, other than to a person who is a 'wholesale investor', and
 - I/we will notify Trust Co. if I/we cease to be a 'wholesale investor'.
